Expense Plan Is Rejected In Senate Vote

Solons Are Against Tax-Free Allowance
Feature By 62 To 7

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Senate, with a wary eye on tax-paying voters back home, voted 62-7 today against accepting a $1,250 tax-free allowance as part of a congressional pay increase bill.

Legislation raising the salaries of senators and representatives from $15,000 to $23,750 a year was sent back to conference with the House with instructions to knock out the tax-free allowance feature.

Critics of the allowance said it would lead the man-in-the street to "point the finger of suspicion" at all Congress members. Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) called the allowance a "gimmick."

Kefauver Defends Plan

Sens. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Dirksen (R-Ill.) defended it as a bona fide expense allowance. Former Vice President Barkley (D-Ky.) spoke out against it. It was Barkley's first major floor speech since he returned to the Senate in January. The opposition became an avalanche.

The House passed the bill earlier in the day by voice vote. Many members expected it would be on its way to the White House tonight in plenty of time for President Eisenhower's signature before the start of the next congressional pay period, March 1.

The bill also carries pay increases for the federal judiciary and Justice Department officials. There was no objection to these, only to what Monroney called the gimmick, and to another new feature: five more trips to home and back every year for all Congress members at government expense.

Conferees To Meet

Both of these features were written in by a Senate-House conference committee yesterday. The conferees met to compromise differences between the House, which had voted to raise congressional salaries to $25,000 a year, and the Senate, which held the figure to $22,500.

Barkley told the Senate that if Congress is going to raise its pay it should do so directly, "Not under a guise."

Actor's Wife Seeks Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—The wife of veteran actor Edward G. Robinson today filed suit for divorce to end their marriage of 28 years.

Mrs. Gladys L. Robinson charged filmfod's "tough guy" with mental and physical cruelty. She said they separated only two days ago, and her petition listed community property with a value of $1½ million dollars.

The action came as a surprise although Robinson said, "There has been a growing lack of understanding between us."

No specific acts of cruelty were mentioned.

Robinson was ordered to appear in Superior Court of March 4 for a hearing on whether he should be restrained from disposing of any community assets pending outcome of the trial.

Youth Trapped 12 Hours In Air Shaft Is Rescued

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—A 20-year-old youth, apparently bent on burglary, tumbled down a 14-story air shaft and was wedged in contorted agony for more than 12 hours. He was rescued today, screaming in pain.

"I think my arms and legs are broken, they're all numb," moaned James Anderson as a dozen emergency squad policemen battered through the shaft wall with sledge-

Maybe There's Future President In This Family

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 25 (AP)—There ought to be a future president somewhere in the Fleche family.

Timothy, the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleche, was born in 1949 on Oct. 27, Theodore Roosevelt's birthday. Michael was born in 1952 on Feb. 22, George Washington's birthday. Peter arrived last year on Feb. 12, Abraham Lincoln's birthday.

And this year along came the first daughter, Ellen Marie, on Washington's birthday.

Harlan Denies He Backs Idea Of "One World"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—John Marshall Harlan, President Eisenhower's nominee for the Supreme Court, denied today he favors any "one world" or internationalist movement that would interfere with the sovereignty of the United States.

Harlan testified at an open hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee, which is considering his nomination. Several previous witnesses opposed his selection for the high court on the ground he has been associated with the Atlantic Union movement.

Officials of the Atlantic Union say it opposes world government, but favors exploring the idea of closer ties, by federal union or otherwise, among Atlantic democracies.

The committee ended its hearing with Harlan's testimony. Chairman Kilgore (D-WVa.) said a vote on confirming the nomination cannot be taken until the printed record of the hearings is available, and that will not be before the middle of next week.

Harlan's nomination has been before the Senate since last November and Eisenhower has administered several prods in the hope of getting it acted upon. He is now a federal district judge in New York.

The main witness against Harlan today was George Racey Jordan, of New York, representing an organization called the American Coalition. The organization describes itself as a combination of groups devoted to preserving constitutional government. Jordan is also a supporter of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Harlan said he firmly believed the United States must take the leadership of the free world in the present international situation. But he said whatever this country does "must be done under the laws and Constitution of the United States."

Beyond such general statements, Harlan asked to be excused from answering questions about what he would or would not do in a given set of circumstances. He said that as a possible Supreme Court justice it would be highly improper for him to comment on matters that might come before him.

Reject Bond Scheme

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Treasury disclosed today it has asked savings bond sellers to help prevent bond sales that may be "part of a chain letter scheme."

Previously Treasury officials announced that the chain letter idea was contrary to Treasury policy, although it boomed sales in some places.

West Germany Leader Fights On Saar Issue

Adenauer Defends Pact With France, Parties Leave Him

BONN, Germany, Feb. 25 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer struggled tonight to save his Saar agreement with France from death in the West German Parliament.

All hope for French approval of German sovereignty and rearmament depended on the outcome.

Adenauer experienced his gravest hours as Chancellor in defending his temporary renunciation of 960,000 German-speaking Saarlanders in their coal-rich frontier valley.

Attacked by opposition Socialists for "treason to the Saar," Adenauer was deserted on the issue by two of the government's four parties—the Free Democrats and the Refugees. They total 74 deputies, but not all may vote no.

May Vote For Pact

In fact, after a four-hour conference of Free Democratic deputies, party chairman Thomas Dehler said 10 or 11 of them probably will vote for the pact. Dehler had led a fight against it. But he said everyone in the party has a right to vote according to his conscience.

Adenauer's own Christian Democratic Union, which normally has a one-vote majority of 244 in the Bundestag, rallied behind him. However, three CDU deputies, expelled from their birthplace in the French-occupied Saar in 1953 for pro-German politics, refused their support.

The German party, fourth and smallest government party with 15 deputies, stuck with Adenauer.

The Saar agreement is one of the five Paris treaties which France insists must be ratified by the Germans as a package if the Bonn Republic is to be granted independence and admitted to the Atlantic Alliance.

Debate Is Begun

A bitter debate was begun by the five Paris treaties morning. It will culminate tomorrow night in a decisive vote. Communist street demonstrations against Adenauer were staged in Bonn yesterday. Heavily reinforced police encountered no troublemakers today.

As spokesman for 47 Free Democrat deputies, Dr. Max Becker told the chancellor:

"We are ready to give gold and goods (to France) but not land and people."

Adenauer replied sharply "This speech is the worst kind of thing from the standpoint of German interests."

Doctor To Get Fitting Burial

CHICAGO, Feb. 25 (AP)—An aged woman physician, whose body was found in a $5-a-month basement flat, is going to have a funeral befitting her former station in life.

Dr. Louise Marshall Hovenden died Monday, apparently of a heart ailment, in the obscurity of her living quarters on the West Side. She was 85, and apparently had outlived friends and relatives.

Her body was taken to the Cook County (Chicago) morgue and seemed destined to be taken ultimately to Potter's Field.

But today the Chicago Medical Society said it will pay the funeral expenses.

Dr. Hovenden entered the medical profession when she obtained a license in 1909. That was at a time when medicine had few women practitioners.

She once had a thriving practice but it dwindled in recent years. The story of her death brought many offers—ranging from cash to cemetery lots—to the Chicago Daily News and to an undertaker in her neighborhood.

Funeral services are scheduled for Saturday with burial in Beverly Cemetery.

Neighbors Wonder

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Feb. 25 (AP)—Neighbors of Mrs. L. F. Tatrow of North Platte have been asking her why she started out on a trip which ended with her and her family trapped in a blizzard for 19 hours.

Mrs. Tatrow, a meteorologist at the North Platte weather station, has not come up with an answer so far.

Pleased With Tax Bill Victory

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) and Rep. Jere Cooper (D-Tenn.), left, congratulate each other after shepherding the Democratic sponsored bill to cut income taxes $20 a person next Jan. 1 through the House. In the crucial vote the Democrats nailed the cut into a package tax bill by a vote of 210-205.

Eight Countries Agree On Action In Bangkok Talks

BANGKOK, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—The eight Manila Pact nations agreed yesterday on united action "to preserve and strengthen the peace" of Southeast Asia and block "those subtle forms of aggression by which freedom and self-government are undermined and men's minds are subverted."

The decisions would up a three-day conference which set up permanent headquarters in Bangkok and created committees to deal with military, subversive and economic problems.

Despite some sharp differences of opinion, international communism was mentioned in the final communiqué of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization as a menace against which members were united. It was the first time the word communism appeared in an official SEATO document since the pact was signed in Manila last September.

"The way of the aggressor has been made harder," summed U.S. Secretary of State Dulles.

The communiqué said delegates met "in circumstances which give increasing urgency to objectives of the treaty." This apparently referred to the Formosa situation on which Dulles conferred at length with British Foreign Secretary Eden during their stay in Bangkok.

Even before the conference ended yesterday, military advisers began discussing plans "to take all possible measures" for defense of freedom in the Orient.

The conference's final communiqué emphasized that these military arrangements, to be built around an American force in the Pacific of 650,000 men, "will never be used for purposes of aggression."

Civil War Veteran Has Lung Congestion

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 25 (AP)—Albert Woolson, 108, last survivor of the Union forces of the Civil War, was hospitalized today with what his doctor described as a lung congestion.

The doctor said the old soldier's condition was not believed to be serious.

Woolson was placed in an oxygen tent soon after being brought to St. Luke's Hospital by ambulance. He had been in good health up to yesterday.

Bridge Wouldn't Open, Reporter Discovers Reason

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 25 (AP)—The Point Street swing bridge here wouldn't open for two hours today.

While a tug and barge waited above the span, a troubleshooter from the city electrician's office pored over blueprints trying to locate circuit trouble.

Robert C. Fredericksen, Journal-Bulletin water front reporter, dropped in to get the story.

Pointing to an open switch, he suggested to the bridge tender that the swing might work better if the switch were closed.

It did.

Thorne Estate Is Inventoried

CHICAGO, Feb. 25 (AP)—An inventory of the possessions of the late Montgomery Ward Thorne was filed today in Probate Court.

The most valuable item, estimated at two million dollars, is a "vested two thirds interest in the trust estate of Gordon C. Thorne," father of Montgomery and her before him to a mail order fortune.

Among other items were 22 pairs of socks, a "lady's TV coat," a "lady's striped dress," a bag of leftover jars of peanut butter and mustard, two comic books and a cap marked with the name Maureen.

Young Thorne, 20, was found dead of natural causes, a coroner's jury found later—June 19. A will the youth drew up nine days before he died left half of his estate to a girl friend, Maureen Ragen, one fourth to her mother, and split the balance between his own mother, Mrs. Marion Thorne, and an aunt.

Mrs. Thorne, chief beneficiary under an earlier will, is contesting the later will in the courts.

National China Forces Sent To Matsus Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—Strong reports persisted today that the Nationalist garrison which abandoned Nanchishan in a secrecy-guarded 41-hour operation was taken 60 miles south to reinforce the Matsus Islands.

The Matsus, 100 miles west of Formosa's northern tip, guard the approaches to the big Red port of Foochow.

Although the United States has made no public commitment, the Nationalists have indicated belief they would get U. S. help in defending both the Matsus and Quemoy, guarding the approaches to Amoy.

Inability to get such help for defense of Nanchishan, 140 miles northwest of Formosa, coupled with Red landings on islands both north and south, apparently prompted the withdrawal at 7 p.m. Feb. 23 and completed at noon Friday.

The Nationalists were silent on the size of the garrison, estimated unofficially at 5,000 but said the evacuation drew no interference from the Reds as close as 12 miles north.

Britain Demands Every Effort To Reach Agreement

LONDON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Britain called on the world's major atomic powers today for every ounce of effort to get an agreement on disarmament.

Opening a secret conference of the U.N. Disarmament Commission subcommittee, British Minister of State Anthony Nutting declared:

"All mankind will agree that there is no hope of attaining real and lasting peace without real all-around disarmament. It is in this spirit that my government and I feel sure, all our governments approach this renewed attempt to seek an agreement."

"In this modern scientific age, none of us must spare one ounce of effort in the fulfillment of this trust."

Weapons Race Gets Attention

Delegates of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada convened in stately Lancaster House as the nuclear weapons race claimed attention on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Russia declares it has forged ahead of the United States in atomic and hydrogen weapons production. Britain is about to produce its own hydrogen bomb and is converting its armed forces for H-bomb warfare. The United States is firing a new series of atomic test explosions at the Las Vegas, Nev., proving grounds.

Western delegates expressed pessimism about prospects of getting Russia to agree to a general program for scrapping of nuclear weapons and steep cuts in conventional arms such as planes and tanks.

Talks Bogged Down

Previous arms talks with the Russians have bogged down in word battles. Informants said U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. sees no solid indications that the Kremlin is ready to compromise this time. Russia is represented here by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The Moscow radio already has charged that the West hamstringing the London conference by barring Red China and insisting on secret sessions.

But informants said the Russians held off during this afternoon's 70-minute session on making demands for procedural changes that could have resulted in disruption of the talks. Discussion centered on how the parley is to be conducted. The next meeting was set for Tuesday.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25 (AP)—An Italian cheesemaker who overstayed a visitor's visa today was given an extra 30 days to wind up his American cheesemaking affairs. The judge said he had eaten Italian cheese and liked it fine.

Federal District Judge Rabe F. Marsh granted the stay after Fortunato Salamone, 44, residing in Fredericktown, Pa., promised to leave the country voluntarily within 30 days.

Living Costs Keep Steady, Consumer Gets More Value

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The government reported today that living costs are remaining steady. It added that the consumer is "getting more value for his money" because of higher quality in many goods.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its living cost index for January remained unchanged from December. It stood at 114.3 per cent of the 1947-49 average. This is nearly 1 per cent below the January 1954 level.

Mrs. Arness Joy Wickens, acting commissioner, said the figures do not reflect the fact quality is improving in many items. She said that for months the bureau has noticed that manufacturers, due to sales competition, were turning out better merchandise — principally clothing and home furnishings — without raising prices.

"This means the consumer is getting more for his money, more value," she said.

Between December and January food prices increased slightly as did prices for fuel, rent, transportation, medical and personal care, and recreation. These were counter-

Ike Is Defied As Democrats Pass Measure

Income Tax Cut Put In Package Bill, 210 To 205

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—House Democrats defied President Eisenhower today and passed their bill to cut income taxes $20 a person beginning next Jan. 1.

The bill, stirring up one of the closest and warmest political scraps in years, now goes to the Senate where its future is doubtful at best. If it should pass that chamber, it faces a possible veto by Eisenhower.

In the crucial vote in the House, Democrats nailed the income tax cut into a package tax bill by a roll call of 210-205. The margin of five votes—forged in the last few seconds of the tense voting—defeated a Republican motion to knock the income tax cut out of the measure.

Sides Exactly Even

At the end of the regular roll of House members, unofficial tallies showed the two sides were exactly even. Both Democratic and Republican leaders scurried frantically for last-second votes.

There were some hurried switchers, and Democrats brought in a few more latecomers. Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), who had pushed through the tax cut over Eisenhower's strong opposition, announced the final score to a hushed House. Democrats erupted in wild applause and back-slapping.

Then the House passed the package bill, 242-175, but that was anticlimax.

The bill also includes Eisenhower's request to continue present corporate income and excise tax rates for one more year. The corporation rate is scheduled to drop from 52 to 47 per cent on April 1. On the same date excises are due to drop on automobiles, liquor, gasoline, cigarettes, beer, wine, trucks and auto parts.

There was no opposition to these tax extensions, which will save the Treasury almost three billion dollars a year. The income tax cut would reduce federal revenues about $2,200,000,000 over a full year.

Provides For Cut

The bill provides a $20 tax cut for each individual taxpayer and each dependent. For example, the cut would amount to $100 for a family of five. Blind persons or persons over 65 who already get an extra tax exemption would get a cut of $40 each.

About five million taxpayers with low incomes or large families would be relieved of any federal income tax bill at all. The reductions would be felt first in payroll deductions after Jan. 1. For those not subject to payroll withholding the reductions would be felt when 1956 returns are filed early in 1957.

Eisenhower had assailed the income tax cut, in the face of an estimated federal deficit of $2,400,000,000 for the year starting July 1, as a new height in "fiscal irresponsibility." Republican leaders in the House had hurled harsher charges, such as "blackjacking... cheap politics... buying votes."

State Launches Plan For School Children To Get Polio Shots

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25 (AP)—The State Health Department today launched plans to administer the Salk polio vaccine to the 150,000 first and second graders in all Maryland schools this Spring.

Whether the shots are given depends on a still uncompleted evaluation report being made on inoculations administered last year to 440,000 youngsters across the country.

The final decision is expected sometime in April.

Dr. Robert H. Riley, Director of the State Health Department, said it is necessary to go ahead now and make the arrangements so no time will be lost then.

The goal is to complete the series of three injections before school is out and the polio season rolls around in early summer.

Maryland had one of its best years for polio in 1954 with only 152 cases which produced paralysis and only six deaths.

The main trouble spot was Cambridge.

In 1953 there were 309 paralytic cases and 26 deaths; in 1952 it was 200 and 14. The lowest incidence in recent history was in 1951, with but 78 cases and six deaths. That followed one of the worst years, 481 cases and 28 deaths in 1950.

Injections will be given only to those children whose parents sign a formal request.

The vaccine, if it is finally licensed for general use, also will be available to private physicians.

It will be provided free by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

First and second graders were chosen for the program because children in their age bracket are most susceptible to polio.

"The administration of three shots of vaccine to so many children in our state will be a tremendous task," Dr. Riley said.

"It will require the cooperation of parents, health and education officials, physicians, nurses and many other volunteers."

"We have high hopes this vaccine will work. Therefore we are making full plans for a vaccine program so that we will be prepared to move immediately into action if we get the green light."

"The vaccine will not be offered to anyone until the official report is issued, and then only if the report shows that the vaccine prevents paralytic polio under natural conditions and the vaccine is licensed."

Dr. Jonas Salk of Pittsburgh devised the vaccine and no untoward results have been reported from the 440,000 youngsters inoculated last year.

Dr. Thomas J. Francis Jr. of the University of Michigan is now working on a report evaluating its effectiveness in preventing polio.

Dr. Francis said that the vaccine is now working on a report evaluating its effectiveness in preventing polio.

Witness Places Fuller At Fatal Shooting Scene

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 25 (AP)—The prosecution dramatically produced testimony today at Albert Fuller's trial that the defendant and a man identified as Arch Ferrell both fled from the parked car where rackets foe A. L. Patterson was shot to death last June 18.

Fuller, 35-year-old former chief deputy sheriff at vice-ridden Phenix City, is charged with murdering Patterson.

The surprise testimony came from Cecil Padgett, 30-year-old construction worker, who said he and his wife had parked across the street from the spot outside Patterson's Phenix City law office where the attorney was killed.

Ferrell, who was chief prosecutor at Phenix City then, also is charged with the murder along with former Alabama Atty. Gen. S. Garrett.

Padgett said he was walking along the sidewalk facing them when he saw Fuller and Patterson walking in front of the building which housed the antiracket crusader's office.

As the two men turned into the parking lot where the slaying occurred, Padgett testified he turned away, crossing the street to where his wife still sat in their parked car.

Three shots rang out as he reached the car, the witness said. "What did you see?" asked the chief prosecutor, Cecil Deason.

"Fuller and to my best judgment Arch Ferrell were there," the witness replied. "Fuller was leaning by the car and they both turned and ran into the lot behind the building."

He said he had known Fuller eight to 10 years and Ferrell about six to eight years.

Two previous witnesses testified they saw Fuller and Ferrell run from the area behind Patterson's office building where today's witness said they were.

Fuller and Ferrell were charged with the murder of Patterson, a prominent antiracket crusader, in 1946.

Hearing On Plan To Canvass Voters Is Postponed

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25 (AP)—Put off indefinitely today was a hearing on a suit to require police to make a detailed voter canvass in Baltimore.

The suit was brought by Francis X. Dippel, Democratic candidate for mayor.

The hearing set for today was put off indefinitely because of another suit in which three candidates seek to force election officials to give them a complete list of voters.

Dippel in his suit cited a little known and completely ignored law which requires police to make reports to the Board of Election Supervisors on every person over 21 who moves.

Radio, TV Libel Bill Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Congress was asked today to protect radio and television stations from libel actions arising from broadcast by political candidates.

Sen. Butler (R-Md) introduced a bill which would protect stations from libel suits "because of any defamatory statement made by a legally qualified candidate for public office" during a broadcast. It would not cover cases in which the broadcasters "participate in such broadcast willfully, knowingly and with intent to defame."

Butler said in a statement that the law now, in effect, "places the broadcasters in the unpleasant and un-American role of censor."

"It is unfair to make them share responsibility with the political candidate for public office," he added. "He alone should be held strictly accountable under the law for statements made over the airwaves. All candidates should be willing to assume that responsibility."

"In the past when broadcasters in attempting to carry out the provisions of law have interfered with what a candidate wanted to say they have frequently caused ill feeling and been unfairly accused of political favoritism. They have also been haled into court as codefendants when they were in complete disagreement with what the candidate had to say."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles leaves Bangkok today for home, via troubled spots of Southeast Asia.

He said he may visit Formosa if time permits.

From Indochina he will fly to Manila, arriving Tuesday. A Formosa visit, if he can get it in, would follow the Philippines stop.

U. S. Arranges Return Of Seven China Fishermen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The United States has arranged to return seven castaway fishermen to their Red China homes at the same time it is hinting broadly that Peiping should do likewise by 15 imprisoned American fliers.

The Chinese fishermen, it was learned today, were rescued last May by U. S. Air Force planes. They had been stranded on a reef in the Paracel Islands, about 200 miles off Indochina in the South China Sea.

The fishermen were taken to the Air Force base at Manila. They told officials they wanted to return to their homes on Hainan Island just off the Red China mainland.

The Philippine government, notified of this, ascertained through British sources at Peiping that Red China would accept the fishermen. The Red Cross at Manila agreed to handle the return, expected about next Tuesday.

American officials, still trying to gain the release of 15 American fliers held inside Red China, called the whole situation to the attention of Dag Hammarskjold, secretary general of the United Nations. It was emphasized to Hammarskjold that the United States behaves in a civilized fashion and sends castaways home as quickly as possible.

Hammarskjold visited Peiping early last month in an effort to secure the release of the 15 American airmen. He has been unsuccessful so far.

Eleven of the U. S. airmen have been sentenced to prison terms as "spies." Like the four others, they were captured during the Korean War, but held back when prisoners were exchanged.

Sees Emergency Film, Tries Test For Authenticity

CHICAGO, Feb. 25 (AP)—Home from kindergarten with the mumps, Daniel Cherullo, 5½, whiled away his time by watching television today.

One of the programs was an educational bit showing youngsters what to do in case of emergencies. When it ended, Daniel decided to make a personal check on its authenticity.

He went to the telephone dialed the operator and reported his house was on fire. Then he told his mother what he had done.

She thought he was kidding her. The three fire trucks that screamed to a stop in front of the house proved he wasn't.

Hospital Rioters

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 25 (AP)—The eight riot leaders at Crownsville State Hospital last night started another ruckus in the Anne Arundel County Jail today but were separated before the disturbance became serious.

Deputy Sheriff Norman Altom said the eight, insane criminals normally kept under maximum security at the Crownsville institution for Negroes, complained about the food they got for supper.

The noisy disturbance lasted about 20 minutes but little damage was done.

County Rescinds Action Seeking State Loan

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday sent a letter to C. L. Wannen, comptroller of the State Roads Commission, informing him that the county wishes to rescind its action of last November in seeking to participate in state loan funds in the amount of $150,000.

William H. Lemmert, president of the board, said it was decided to forego participation in the state roads loan program because of the necessity of "cutting every corner" as far as county expenditures are concerned.

The board received official notification from Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, from the minutes of a recent meeting of the Board of Education, on the stand of the school board in connection with the teacher salary increase.

The commissioners had asked for the official notification a few days ago. The school board is still standing firm on its proposal for a $300 salary increase for the coming school term and an additional $100 the following year. This would make next school term salaries range from $3,100 to $4,900 and the following year $3,200 to $5,000.

A letter signed by Betty B. Fazenbaker, corresponding secretary of the Central Elementary PTA in Lonaconing, stated that group was supporting a $500 increase the next school term for teachers.

Yesterday's session of the board was attended by four Fort Hill High School ninth grade students. They talked with the commissioners about their duties as part of their school work.

The students are Sandra George, Dorothy Harper, Frederick Evans, and James Diehl.

Celanese Declares Stock Dividends

Directors of Celanese Corporation of America have declared a dividend of 12½¢ a share on the common stock payable March 24 to holders of record March 7, 1955.

Sports Car Race Groups Appointed

Committee chairmen for the Cumberland Sports Car Races to be held May 13, 14 and 15, at Municipal Airport have been appointed by William R. Carscaden, general chairman.

This will be the third annual sports car race to be sponsored by the Cumberland Lions Club.

Concessions, George Connor and John Weber; grounds, William George; trophies, Merrill Barnes; printing, Harry I. Stegmaier; crowd control, Ernest B. Treat and Walter Hedrick; first aid, Magnus Work.

William Harrison has been named treasurer and Winfield Adam, coordinator, Carscaden announced.

The committee chairmen met last night in Central YMCA to further plans for the event which last year attracted over 100 sports car owners from all parts of the east and nearly 6,000 spectators.

The club is working to make this year's races a national event. For the past two years, the Steel Cities Region (Pittsburgh Region) of the Sports Car Club of America has been conducting the technical racing part of the event.

The general chairman reported that already he personally has received 20 requests for hotel accommodations from those who attended the Cumberland races in the past two years.

Mrs. Amtower Hurt In Blaze

A former Cumberland woman is reported in "satisfactory" condition in Ames, Iowa, hospital after suffering burns and shock when a flash fire, believed to have resulted from accumulation of gas, damaged her new home February 15.

She is Mrs. Warren C. Amtower, 26, the former Rose Marie Milburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Milburn, 400 York Place. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Amtower, 203 Arch Street.

Mothers of the couple, Mrs. Milburn and Mrs. Amtower, are in Ames with their daughter and son. Attaches at Mary Greeley Hospital said Mrs. Warren Amtower suffered second and third degree burns of the face and back and her hair was almost burned off. Her face was not badly injured, they said.

The Amtowers' $12,000 home is just a month old.

Warren Amtower, who is a bacteriologist and works at the Hog Cholera Research Station for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was at work when the accident occurred. He and his wife have resided in Ames since 1951.

A PROBLEM OF TIMING

THE precise timing of such a hand as the following is no simple matter for the average player or the expert.

North's overall bidding was somewhat questionable—since he "reversed" with hearts on the second round and jumped from two spades to three notrump, he had little left for the urging five-spade bid—but the slam was not an unreasonable venture.

West, holding considerable strength in South's obviously long

club suit, might well have tried to protect that holding by leading the ace and another trump, but he elected to open the top of his heart sequence. Declarer put up dummy's ace, cashed the club ace and ruffed a low club, then trumped a heart to lead and ruff another low club. All this, however, was fast shortening South in trumps, and since he could not afford to lead the low spade still in dummy—West would have won and given his partner a club ruff—South had to use another trump on a heart or diamond ruff for re-entry to his own hand. The upshot was that declarer inevitably lost control of the trump suit, and the contract became hopeless.

Now observe the difference if South had cashed both high clubs before ruffing a club (with the spade nine). He would then use one of his own trumps on a heart ruff, and would clear the club suit by ruffing another round with the spade king. Now he would lead the spade five, and nothing the defenders could do would bring them more than one trick, the ace of trumps.

The general analysis of this hand was that the contract could scarcely be made against a really bad break of clubs or trumps, and so there was no good reason for not cashing the ace and king of clubs immediately.

Commissioners Seek Meeting With Delegation

The Allegany County Commissioners hope to arrange a meeting with the county delegates to the Legislature over the weekend while the legislators are home.

A number of calls have been received from the delegates in which they state they would "like more definite information" pertaining to the county. The commissioners pointed out yesterday that last week while in Annapolis to confer with the delegation a nine-page list on the stand of the board on a number of controversial matters was presented.

As far as the rest of the matters are concerned, the commissioners said, the nine-page report lists the stand of the board. It is hoped that at a meeting either today or tomorrow the entire situation can be clarified, the commissioners said.

Secrets Of Charm by John Robert Powers

Household tasks work both for and against you. They beautify your figure—and it's time to consider that, with spring suits in the offing. They can also fatigue you more than necessary if not performed with sense and efficiency.

The more sensible your equipment, the more efficient your cleaning. For example, use long-handled tools that permit comfortable, fast work in upright position. Practice perfect posture—head up, shoulders relaxed, stomach in—as you wax floors and linoleum with a long-handled applicator. Use the same backsaver for going over walls and blinds, cleaning cobwebs from high ceilings, dusting remote corners of closets, washing windows.

You can avoid the bend-over-double of other cleanliness chores by using long-handled cleaner attachments, and by scrubbing the bathtub with a similar type of brush. Such appliances will save woman-hours and energy.

Stoop And Squat

Learn how to stoop and squat properly, when you perform jobs that can't be done any other way—picking up baby's toys, perhaps. Any action can be an exhibit of grace in motion, or a ridiculous spectacle that puts your backbone (and your temper) out of joint.

Next time you squat down on the floor, or stoop to pick up some object, remember that plopping and flopping cause muscular strain and tiredness through awkward motion. Use your body gracefully, as nature intended that you should, and lessened fatigue will be your reward.

Here is the simple technique that takes the stoop out of stooping: With weight on the balls of the feet, and the feet a pace apart, stand to one side of the object on the floor, and bend the knees until you can grasp it easily. Rise very slowly, keeping the head and back erect.

Follow Plan

Always start your housecleaning days with a practical plan. Try not to schedule more than you have found reasonable in the past. Intersperse work periods with rest periods when you sit or lie down with heels higher than head. These, plus more efficient operating procedures, are ways to keep from bogging down. In fact, they put

Bus Terminal Damaged In 3-Alarm Fire

An overheated motor in a ventilating system apparently was the cause of a three-alarm blaze which caused considerable damage at the Blue Ridge Bus Terminal shortly before noon yesterday.

One person had to be led to safety as smoke filled the terminal, the adjoining restaurant, the three-story Southern Hotel, Southern Bar, and Sam Barsky's jewelry shop.

George Karoulis, 61, a roomer at the hotel, was found lying in the hall on the third floor, partially overcome by smoke. He was led to safety by Lt. Virgil McClure of Central Fire Company and John Spiker, chauffeur at Central.

Firemen said Karoulis occupied Room 13 on the third floor. Two canaries belonging to the tenant died as a result of the smoke. A number of other caged canaries survived.

Mrs. James Porter, who along with her husband, operates the rooming house, said she smelled smoke and upon opening the door of her second-floor apartment, found the hall filled. She made her way to the street by staying close to the wall until she reached the stairway.

Another roomer, Lee Hilliard, climbed to safety by climbing onto a roof through a second-story window. Ross Keller, another roomer, got to the street by using the stairs.

Joseph B. Decker, transportation supervisor of the Blue Ridge bus concern, discovered the fire about 11:40 a.m. Decker said he was working in the ticket office of the bus terminal when he heard a roar. Investigating, he saw flames shooting up through the ventilating system back of the restaurant.

Decker summoned the fire department with Engine Companies 1 and 3 and Truck Company No. 1 responding.

Firemen managed to confine the blaze to the ventilating system and a small portion of the roof under the bus terminal. An inch or more of water leaked into the terminal.

William L. Sheehy, who operates the restaurant, said only three or four customers were in the establishment at the time. However, a Blue Ridge bus from Pittsburgh was due at the time the fire broke out. It was delayed for about an hour.

Decker said some water damage was caused to papers in the office of the bus terminal, although all baggage stored in a room under the ventilator was carried out of the building after the fire was discovered.

The blaze attracted several hundred spectators.

Formosa Policy

that the shooting war is over that tax should be reduced, as it was, he added.

Another $1,000,000,000 in tax cuts last year was in excise taxes which are charged on such things as cosmetics, washing machines and long distance phone calls. The reductions enabled more people to buy things they needed, he said. The excess profit tax, adopted during the Korean War, also was repealed.

Along with reduction in taxes, the Eisenhower Administration has lowered the government expenditures. Some $13,000,000,000 was cut out of President Truman's final budget in 1953. For the coming year the federal budget will be $58,000,000,000, compared with $80,000,000,000 in the last Truman year, Hruska said.

After discussing the government's fiscal policies, Senator Hruska turned to the foreign policy situation.

Airs Formosa Situation

He described the Formosa Resolution, which empowered President Eisenhower to use American forces in defense of the island off the China coast as a reaffirmation of a policy which has been followed since May 1950.

If Formosa is taken by the Chinese Reds, they will be only 200 miles from the Philippines and will be able to outflank Okinawa, the chief American air base in the Pacific.

Senator Hruska closed by citing President Eisenhower's tremendous capacity for greatness and expressed a hope that he will again be the Republican candidate for President in 1956.

James S. Getty, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Allegany County, was toastmaster. He introduced many of the county elected and appointed officials. Miss Loraine Sager, Miss Western Maryland of 1952, and her sister, Mrs. Doris Sager Hadley, sang several duets, accompanied by Miss Mary Lou Eisenstrout.

Invocation before the Maryland roast turkey dinner was served was by Rev. Howard Amoss, pastor of Centre Street Methodist Church. He also gave the benediction.

Senator Kimble Takes A New Job

Senator Robert B. Kimble has accepted and been confirmed as the new chairman of Maryland's Department of Employment Security and we offer him our congratulations and best wishes in his new position.

His decision we know was not an easy one. His 21 years as Allegany County's senator in the General Assembly made him the dean of the Senate while a preceding term in the House of Delegates ranked him as the second oldest legislator in the state in point of service.

Mr. Kimble has been an acknowledged leader in the Senate in addition to his elected status as minority leader and his service on the state's Legislative Council.

Those things are hard to give up even upon moving ahead to a big job like that which he has just accepted after considering Governor McKeldin's offer for the past few days.

An indication of Senator Kimble's status in the Senate can be gleaned from the swiftness with which his nomination to be chairman of the Department of Employment Security was confirmed.

Within 10 minutes after he informed Governor McKeldin of his decision, the nomination had been sent to the Senate. Republican Senator Hoff moved that Senator Kimble be confirmed immediately instead of following the usual procedure, and the motion was seconded by four other senators, Republican and Democrat alike. Confirmation followed almost instantaneously.

While Senator Kimble will not resign from the Senate until the end of this session of the legislature, his decision doubtless will be received with mixed feelings—regret that he is leaving the Senate after so many years of service, and pleasure that he has moved up to one of the topmost positions in the state government.

The question of Senator Kimble's successor will not come up officially, of course, until he resigns from the Senate, but we can imagine meanwhile there will be much activity on the part of aspirants to the post.

Conjecture will run rampant until a successor finally is appointed, but Senator Kimble in the meantime will devote his energies to legislative questions that come before him.

It would be virtually impossible for anyone to serve in the Senate as long as Senator Kimble has without incurring some enmity, but we feel certain that his decisions have been made with the best interest of Allegany County and the State of Maryland at heart.

Senator Kimble indeed has come a long way from his work as a young man on the C. and O. Canal to his new position of trust in the state government. We wish him well.

These Days

Shears And Scissors

It is easy to be theoretical about what does not affect one's own affairs. Actually for the amount of shears and scissors I would ordinarily buy, it would make little difference where the cutting steels come from. However, if I were manufacturing shears, scissors, surgical instruments or manicure sets in the United States at this moment, I would be looking around for something else to do or I might even move my business to some other country and export the goods from there to the American market. It could be more profitable under H.R. 1, now before Congress.

For many years, this industry was protected by a tariff which it regarded as reasonable. Meanwhile, American surgeons found it easy to get their own inventions and improvements manufactured here in the United States. The tariff, on shears and scissors, has now been lowered twice and probably faces a third reduction. The American manufacturer is required to pay wages that are four times higher than wages paid to similar workers in Germany and he cannot translate the difference into a competitive price.

Result: American firms are closing down. The Shears, Scissors and Manicure Implement Manufacturers Association states that the following firms have already discontinued manufacturing these commodities:

Berridge Shear Co., Sturgis, Mich.; Belmar Instrument Co., Belmar, N. J.; Birmingham Cutlery Co., Birmingham, Ala.; Case-Smiley Co., Fremont, Ohio; Cameron Manufacturing Co., Emporium, N. Y.; Arthur Dorr, Newark, N. J.; Harjan, Inc., East Orange, N. J.; Kafelt Manufacturing Corp., Keene, N. H.; Metroloy Corp., Canton, Ohio; Carl Monkhous, Ellicottville, N. Y.; Progress Cutlery Co., Fort Smith, Ark.; Rex Cutlery Corp., Irvington, N. J.; T. E. Schneider Corp., St. Norwalk, Conn.; Tri-Ess Products, Inc., Jersey City, N. J.; International Edge Tool Co., Newark, N. J.

Others are expected to follow. It is reported that in Solingen, Germany, and vicinity there are about 800 manufacturers of cutlery, ranging from family work at home to small factories. In addition to manufacturing at about one quarter the American cost, this industry is subsidized by the West German government which receives subsidies from the United States. American manufacturers cannot compete with low wages and indirect American subsidies to German firms, plus a low tariff.

The largest American manufacturer of quality shears and scissors is J. Wiss and Sons. They have now gone out of the surgical scissors business because they cannot remain in it competitively with Germany. The Clauss Cutlery Company reports that it will have to do the same because "our production is almost down to nothing."

There is a theory that when American manufacturers cannot compete in the American market with manufacturers from other countries, they ought to omit making this particular commodity and devote their capital and skill to something else.

That theory might be sound in time of peace. But we are living in a world that is continually within a prospect of war. Therefore, it is essential to conserve those American industries which are needed for war production and those skilled laborers who are becoming all too rare in a period of automatic machine production.

That is a factor in our manufactures that ought to be weighed against the advantage that may come from supporting the economies of those nations which we want to keep on our side. The American industries involved are comparatively small and do not involve huge investments of capital or large numbers of workers. But what they do may be irreplaceable in time of war.

Cheer Up, The Lid Will Soon Be Off

'Stable Dollar' Depends On Voters Understanding It

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—How many people know what is meant by the expression "a stable dollar?" Yet whether America is to have a sound dollar depends upon the number of voters throughout America who understand the meaning of that term.

Hence, when the President of the United States explains it in the simplest language, his words are worth printing in exactly the form in which he uttered them. Paraphrases of condensed dispatches do not always convey the full meaning. And basic education on the importance of the dollar as a unit of purchasing power has been neglected. Only when the dollar begins to buy less and less does the public awaken to the dangers and begin to ask questions as to why the catastrophe has happened.

Cites Danger To Economy

Mr. Eisenhower explained his concept of the dollar when he was asked at his press conference what he thought of the proposal of the majority of the Democrats in the House of Representatives to give everybody a $20 tax cut. The President did not say that tax cuts couldn't be granted while the budget was unbalanced. Indeed the correction of inequitable tax rates last year led actually to an expansion of business and an increase in the total tax receipts. He did say, however, that a tax cut which ignored sound principles of taxation and resulted in inflation was dangerous to the economy.

"Any proposal to reduce taxes," explained the President, "is, of course, popular, and at first glance this is a kind of proposal that should make an appeal to low income brackets. Let's take a little closer look at this proposal and start off with this observation:

"Whenever you have inflation, the immediate effect is to hurt the people of fixed incomes—white-collar workers and others who for the moment, at least, are on relatively fixed incomes. But, in the long run, the person who is hurt most is the person who lays aside savings in the form of pensions, insurance plans, and savings bonds for use in his older age.

"For example, anybody who paid up all of his share of a pension by as early as 1939 was getting in 1953 half of the worth of the dollars, of the worth of the pension plan he had bought.

Expected Deficit Reduced

"Now, when we talk of decreasing revenues at a time when the government, in spite of every saving we have been able to make, is still spending somewhat more than it takes in, we are reaching some kind of heights in fiscal irresponsibility, and because this does have on the surface a popular or appealing appearance, these people apparently hope it may be passed.

"Now, we inherited in 1953 a budget that contemplated a 9.9 billion deficit in federal financing. By hard work—and I assure you it is hard work when you realize that every bureau of government feels it should have more money—we have reduced that to an expected deficit in 1956 of something less than two and a half billion, or in that neighborhood, as estimated.

"Now, (if we increase the deficits) we are going back to deficit spending, the most insidious thing that can happen to a free economy, and particularly in its bad effects upon low income groups. I should like to call your attention to a statement by economists of the American Federation of Labor, which said the year 1954 was the finest over-all salary year in their history. In spite of the fact that their salary increases were only five to nine cents—in general insignificant or small as compared to salary increases of the past—their purchasing power, due to the stability of the dollar, their over-all position in the salary angle, was the best of their history.

Based On Stable Dollar
"In the last two years, the cost of living has varied less than one-half of one per cent. From 1939 to 1953, the dollar went from 100 cents to 52 cents. It is that kind of thing that must be stopped if we are to preserve the principles on which this country was established. It is based on a free economy which in turn is based on a stable dollar, which in turn is more important to all low income and fixed income groups than it is to rich people.

"Rich people can buy equities (stocks), can afford to invest in equities, and as the dollar goes down, cheapens, the amount of dollars that they have invested goes up and up. But the fixed income group—the man who is buying an insurance policy or looking forward to living on his pension—is the one that is hurt. We simply cannot have this kind of thing in responsible government."

The President advocated tax revision that is "thoroughly worked out" so as to achieve stability in living costs, and the proper distribution of taxes. This was started, he said, with the tax changes last year, and it has resulted in an upswing in business and a return of confidence.

This is the main difference between the policies of the Republican and the Democratic party, and should interest those who sometimes say they can perceive no difference between the two major political parties in America today.

BATHS FOR HEALTH

C. W. writes: We are studying in our hygiene class about different kinds of baths used in disease. Can you give us a few clues?

REPLY
The ordinary bath or shower for cleanliness, the hot bath for relaxation, the sitz bath for pelvic and rectal trouble, and the Hubbard tank used in polio are the chief examples.

BEDBUG MANOR

Mrs. W. writes: We moved six months ago and have been fighting bedbugs ever since. Our landlord says the apartment never had them before and that certain people (like us) breed them. Could this be?

REPLY
People breed people and bedbugs breed bedbugs. Don't let your landlord get away with this alibi. A good exterminator should be able to eradicate these pests.

SURGERY NOT TO BLAME

Mrs. G. writes: Does cutting into a cancer make it spread into the blood stream?

REPLY
No. If advanced cancer spreads after an operation, this is purely coincidental and would have taken place whether or not surgery had been done.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Fort Hill Cracks LaSalle's 11-Game Winning Streak, 55-47

Sentinels Post Second Major Upset In Week

Outcome Makes City Championship Race Three-Way Scramble

BY GEORGE ESKIN

An inspired Fort Hill Sentinel quintet, leading from the opening minute, threw a jolt into the city-championship plans of LaSalle last night, besting the Explorers by a score of 55-47 on the Greenway Avenue hardwoods and breaking a Next Friday game winning streak.

LaSalle's 11-game winning streak, which began on the Greenway Avenue hardwoods and breaking a Next Friday game winning streak.

Coach George Geatz's charges had swamped the Sentinel sharpshooters, 68-52, in the first meeting of the teams on the St. Peter and Paul court, scene of next week's Allegany-Explorers tussle.

But the Hilltoppers were not to be denied as they scored their second major upset in the past week, having topped the Allegany, 59-57, last Friday evening.

The loss was only the third for the Blue and Gold in 19 outtings, while the Red Raiders, playing their final game of the season, closed the campaign with a state of eight victories against 13 setbacks.

Kline Opens Scoring

Approximately 700 screaming fans witnessed the thriller, and saw Dorcel Kline, senior forward, grab a rebound from a long set shot of Galen McGregor and lay it up for the first two points.

Clarence "Poochie" Lewis gave the Sentinels a 4-0 lead with a fine jump shot from quarter court.

Jerry Hart converted two charity tosses to start the LaSalle scoring, and after Bill Roberts sank a long set shot, LaSalle called time out with the score 7-4, Fort Hill's favor.

The first period ended with the squad of Coach "Tubby" Cavanaugh enjoying a 17-11 lead.

Paced by center Phil Geatz, leading city scorer who tallied 21 points for the evening, the Explorers fought back gamely in the second stanza and as the first half closed, the Fort Hill lead diminished to two markers, 28-26.

In the third quarter the Scarlet and White stretched their margin to 38-34, with McGregor and Lewis pacing the scorers.

Landis Sparks Drive

The victors pulled slowly ahead in the final period, sparked by the all-around play of senior guard Jerry Landis. The Sentinels drove to their biggest lead, nine points, at 54-45 when Landis made a spectacular driving shot before the crowd to the court on his back. The crowd broke out in an ear-splitting roar for the plucky, hard-driving Landis.

Van Parsons closed the scoring with a foul shot for LaSalle, making the final score 55-47.

The winners were obviously "up" for the game. They capitalized on every break they earned. Although Geatz was a tower of strength for the Explorers under the backboards, both on defensive and offensive rebounds and shots, the Red Raiders managed to capture the ball at decisive moments. While Geatz was the only LaSalle player grabbing many rebounds, Landis, Lewis, Kline, and senior center, Jon Hann split the Fort Hill recoveries.

Have High Average

Fort Hill's shooting and foul line, was much higher than that of the Geatzmen. Converting .500 of their foul attempts, the Sentinels led the Explorers who made only .350 of their free throws. Phil Geatz, who poured ten field goals through the hoops, made only one of eight charity tosses.

From the field, LaSalle attempted 68 shots as compared to the Hilltoppers' 47, but the Cavanaugh shot for an average of .446 while the Explorers made only .294 of their tries.

The Red Raiders' man-to-man defense harassed the visitors all evening, and they had difficulty getting many good shots.

LaSalle's junior varsity defeated the Fort Hill jayvees, 48-37, in the preliminary game. Lineups:

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler won Teddy Davis down with a blistering two-handed attack tonight to win a unanimous decision in their 15-round title fight in Madison Square Garden. Saddler weighed 124½, Davis 126.

Davis, the "losingest" man ever to fight for a title with 47 previous defeats in his spotty record, never went down but the right side of his face was badly swollen from Sandy's chopping lefts.

All the steam ran out of the 31-year-old Davis in the last half of the fight after he had given Saddler trouble in the early rounds with his left jab. Red Top was rocked two or three times and hurt in the final minute.

Referee Harry Kessler cautioned Saddler several times for his hit-and-hold tactics and his attempts to spin the challenger from Hartford, Conn. However, he also warned Davis for wrestling in the eighth. The St. Louis executive, working his first title fight in New York, never did take a round away.

The balloting was strictly a formality although the votes for Saddler brought boos from the gallery where Davis' Connecticut contingent was firmly entrenched.

Referee Kessler scored it 11-3, Judge Harold Barnes 12-3 and Judge Bert Grant 9-6 all for the champion. The AP had it 10-3-2 for Saddler.

15 May Start In Santa Anita Handicap Race

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—Fifteen horses were named today to take a shot at the $100,000 added Santa Anita Handicap tomorrow, and the 18th running of the winter classic once again had the horse experts predicting a wide open battle for the rich prize.

The race will be worth $140,000 gross and the winner will collect $103,200 if all 15 answer the call to take the track tomorrow afternoon.

The King Ranch's Rejected, winner of the race a year ago, may be the individual favorite with a crowd expected to total over 50,000.

Andrew Crevelin's little gray colt, Determine, the maturity winner this year and the 1954 Kentucky Derby champion, doubtless will be a sentimental choice.

SEVENTH RACE: The Santa Anita Handicap, $100,000 added, 3-year olds and up, 1 1/4 miles (chute).

Legislators Adjourn Until 2 P. M. Monday

By HERB LITTLE

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 25 (AP)—The House defeated today a bill to increase amounts and duration of jobless benefits after a debate in which West Virginia's present high level of unemployment was prominent.

The vote was 51-43. Thirty Democrats joined the 21 Republicans present in voting against the measure.

Approved by a 92-2 vote in the House was a measure setting forth each county's percentage share of a proposed fund for local road construction. Del. Davis (D-Kanawha) and Bower (D-Calhoun) cast the only votes against the measure, which now goes to the Senate.

The bill is a companion to the two-cent gasoline tax increase which the House approved earlier in the week and sent to the Senate. Half of the increased tax would be set aside for construction and reconstruction of secondary roads. The proposed allocations of the earmarked money are spelled out in the bill passed today.

The Senate, meanwhile, passed a half-dozen bills to which there was no opposition.

One of the Senate measures passed and sent to the House would empower counties to charge a recordation fee for deeds and similar instruments amounting to one per cent of the price of the property conveyed.

One-fourth of revenue so derived would be earmarked for schools, and the sponsor, Sen. Martin (D-Berkeley) estimated that up to five million dollars might be raised for over-all purposes if all 55 counties took advantage of the provisions.

Both House and Senate adjourned until 2 p.m. Monday.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—The stock market inched a little lower today. But trading was highly selective, volume light and several important sections rallied modestly late in the afternoon.

Motors, distillers, radio-television, department store and copper mining stocks moved upward in the final hours. But demand was not strong enough to counteract the downward pressure of the steels, railroads, rubber, oil and motion picture stocks. Utilities, airlines, aircrafts, chemicals and building material producers ended mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 60 cents at $158.90. Yesterday, this average was off one dollar. Today, the industrial component lost 80 cents, the railroad group 90 cents and the utilities remained unchanged.

General Motors and Chrysler were in demand on company announcements that not only is business at peak levels, but expectations are that business will continue at a fast clip. GM rose 1 1/2 at 69 1/2 and Chrysler was up 1/2 at 69 1/2.

General Refractories Co. climbed two points at 31 1/2 after the company raised the dividend.

Baldwin Lima was the most active issue, closing at 16 1/2 at 48,100 shares. Panhandle oil was second, up 1/2 at 12 1/2 on 48,100 shares. Pennsylvania Railroad was third, off 1/2 at 27 1/2 on 46,600 shares. Lehigh Valley Coal was fourth, up 1/2 at 32 on 32,700 shares and "St. Paul" Railroad was fifth, up 1/2 at 23 1/2 on 28,000 shares.

American Stock Exchange issues were mostly lower as volume diminished to 1,150,000 shares from 1,330,000 shares yesterday. Colts manufacturing, which omitted its dividend, lost 1 1/2 at 14 1/2. Also lower were Anacon Lead, Standard Oil of Kentucky, Mesabi Iron, Creole Petroleum and Colonial Airlines. Higher were Giant Yellow Knife Gold, Kaiser Motors, St. Lawrence Corp. and Woodley Petroleum.

Music Festival Set At Mt. Savage

MT. SAVAGE — The second annual Music Festival will be held March 1 at 8 p. m. in Mt. Savage High School. The Senior and Junior chorus will sing a selection of numbers. The band will play the following numbers: "Spring Promenade", "Storm King", "Imperial."

The five girls participating in the contest were nominated by the student body sometime ago. The girl receiving the most votes throughout the communities will be crowned queen the night of the festival. Campaigning for the honor of Music Festival Queen are Rebecca Howe, Jacqueline Dickel, Darlene Stevens, Joan Logsdon, and Dorothy Sweeney.

The band and chorus are under the direction of Alfred Snyder.

Sportsmen's Auxiliary Plan Barton Bazaar

BARTON—Dogwood Flat Hunting and Fishing Club auxiliary held a meeting recently at the club house. Refreshments were served by Nilda Stafford, Louella Robertson and Betty Mowbray.

The group made plans to hold a bazaar at the Barton American Legion Post home on March 25. The bazaar will feature a country store, baked goods, parcel post sale, knit goods, a cake walk and a guess cake.

Formosa Plan To Avert War, Hruska Says

Hyde Slaps Demo Tax Bill In GOP Lincoln Day Talk

Some 300 Allegany County Republicans last night heard United States Senator Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska explain the Formosa Resolution as an action which should stabilize the situation in the Far East and may avoid war.

Senator Hruska, speaking at a Lincoln Day dinner in Centre Street Methodist Church recreation hall, expressed doubts that Soviet Russia would join with Red China if the latter should attempt its oft-repeated threat to invade Formosa.

"Russia is not going to wait for an excuse if she wants to start a war," asserted the man who rose from a freshman Congressman to a senior Senator in two years.

The Nebraskan, making his first public appearance in Cumberland after a number of Lincoln Day talks in Montana and his home state, was introduced by Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde of this district.

Hyde Explains Vote

Congressman Hyde explained why he voted against the Democrat-sponsored Tax Reduction Bill in the House earlier yesterday. He poked fun at the Democrat action on Capitol Hill, where he said they "raised salaries on one end and lowered taxes on the other."

The second-term Congressman termed the bill a neat trick which tied the $20-a-person tax reduction to a bill extending corporation and excise taxes for another year.

Hyde blasted the action of the Democrats in Congress as "fiscal irresponsibility." He said that the $20 a year reduction in taxes will amount to about 25 cents a week. But by cutting federal revenue $2,500,000,000 in a year, he said, it will give an additional spur to inflation and probably will cost the same taxpayer who saved the 38 cents a week 50 cents because of lessened purchasing power for his dollar.

1954 Labor's Best Year

In closing his brief remarks as he introduced Senator Hruska, Congressman Hyde quoted a report from an economist for the American Federation of Labor who said that 1954 was the best post-war year in purchasing power for union labor.

Last year the wage earner got the full benefit of his increased pay envelope, whereas in other years inflation had gobbled up most of the gain, Hyde said. He declared that the tax reduction will destroy the gains that were made last year. Senator Hruska, who was a freshman Congressman like Hyde during the 83d Congress, moved up to the Senate seat vacated by the death last year of Senator Hugh Butler.

After paying tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican President, Hruska turned to the present Republican President, Dwight D. Eisenhower. He pointed out that the Eisenhower Administration has cleaned up the federal government, has extended Social Security coverage to more people, has broadened unemployment insurance and has added about a dozen laws to check on subversives in government.

He noted that Senator J. Glenn Beall of Frostburg and Congressman Hyde had introduced a bill just this week clearing up discrepancies in unemployment insurance provisions in the District of Columbia.

$7.2 Billion In Tax Cuts
In the first two years of the Eisenhower Administration, taxes were cut $7,500,000,000 in a program which the visiting Senator called "substantial, intelligent and true."

He said the 10 per cent drop in individual income taxes wiped out an increase in tax was provided to help finance the Korean War. Now

Mrs. Shipe Held Under Bond In Infant's Death

Faces Second Degree Murder Charges

Mrs. Dorothy Ernestine Shipe, 22, who was arrested here January 9 in connection with the death of an infant son, has admitted that the child was born alive and that she caused its death by stuffing an undergarment into its mouth, according to Ohio authorities.

Mrs. Shipe is being held under $10,000 bond in Lorain County (Ohio) Jail on a second degree murder charge pending action of the grand jury which meets March 1.

Her husband, Robert L. Shipe, formerly of Oldtown, was not held in connection with the infant's death.

City Police Detective Joseph H. Stichter yesterday said he had been notified by Lloyd Seck and Edward Gawlick, deputies of the Lorain County sheriff's office, that Mrs. Shipe had signed a statement admitting the baby was born alive and that she stuffed the undergarment into its mouth.

The body of the baby, who the mother said was born out of wedlock shortly before Christmas 1953, was found locked in a suitcase in a house trailer formerly occupied by the Shipes at Elyria, Ohio. The couple was married last February.

In a statement to local police, Mrs. Shipe previously had said that after the baby was born, she thought it was dead and placed it in the suitcase.

Mrs. Shipe told Ohio authorities that she had not wanted the people with whom she resided in Lorain to know that the child had been born. She also stated that she did not want her parents to learn of the child's birth.

Following her arrest here last month, Ohio authorities came to Cumberland. Mrs. Shipe waived extradition in Circuit Court before Chief Judge George Henderson and was returned to Elyria the next day.

After being questioned in Ohio, she pleaded not guilty to the second degree murder charge.

Sykesville Man Hurt In Crash

A 67-year-old Sykesville resident was reported "fairly comfortable" last night at Sacred Heart Hospital, where he was admitted about 4 p. m. yesterday with injuries sustained in an auto accident a mile east of Flintstone on Route 40.

The hospital said James G. B. Coberly sustained a deep laceration of the head and a possible shoulder injury. X-rays have been taken.

State Police said Coberly, driving alone, was traveling east on Route 40, ran off the highway, swerved back across the highway, hit an embankment and then struck a utility pole.

The accident occurred about 2:30 p. m. according to Pfc. James F. Lewis.

Drainage Tile Laid On Heavner Farm

The Allegany County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors yesterday heard a report from Martin M. Gordon, Soil Conservation Service aid, that some 1,300 feet of tile was laid during the month on the farm of Justin Heavner near Flintstone.

Gordon said that a group of Flintstone High School vo-ag students visited the farm while the work was in progress to see the conservation practice.

One new cooperater was signed up during February, Gordon added. He was Lawrence W. Mallory Sr., who has purchased the 400-acre Taylor McLaughlin farm east of Oldtown.

Senator Hruska Meets Nebraska Native Here

Miss Maude Bean, retired Allegany County home demonstration agent, last night had the opportunity of meeting another generation in a family she knew long ago in Nebraska.

As she shook the hand of Senator Roman L. Hruska last night after his Lincoln Day talk here, she recalled that she began teaching in school in Douglas County, Neb., years ago. Senator Hruska's father was superintendent of schools there.

Municipal Band Schedules Varied Concert Mar. 3

A varied 15-selection program including marches, an overture, a rumba and a number of other semi-classical and popular pieces will be presented by the Cumberland Municipal Band at the Port Hill High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 3.

W. Valgene Routh is conductor of the 40-piece band and Frank Munson is assistant conductor. James Hager, a baritone, will be the guest soloist. The trombone trio includes Howard Andrews, Ray Vernal and Paul Hillaire.

There also will be a dancer in the program, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Routh, who is supervisor of music education in the county schools, wanted a dancer to rumba while the band plays "When Yuba Plays the Rumba on the Tuba." So he contacted a local dance studio and was informed that his own secretary, Miss Ferguson, is an accomplished dancer. So she's doing the rumba sequence. She is a daughter of John A. Ferguson, who teaches vocational industrial arts at Fort Hill.

The opening portion of the free concert will include "His Honor," a march; "Light Cavalry Overture," "Slippery Gentlemen," featuring the trombone trio; "Funiculi, Funicula," and "World Events," a march with Munson as conductor.

Following the march will be "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," the rumba selection, "Remember Chopin," "Reeds to the Front," another march.

Hager then will sing two public favorites, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Trees."

The program will conclude with "A Tribute To Romberg," "Bugle Call Rag" and "Band of America March."

Dress rehearsal will be at 8 p. m. Wednesday at Fort Hill.

There will be no admission or collection at the concert.

Aunt Jemima Pancake Party Planned Monday

Heart Fund To End With Huge Benefit

As a climax to the fund campaign of the Allegany County Heart Association, a huge pancake party will be held at Central YMCA Monday from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m.

According to John E. Geare, general campaign chairman, the idea is a novel one in this area, but has been utilized with a great amount of success in many cities and towns.

Actually, it's a big community party, with a personal appearance by Aunt Jemima of pancake fame. Sponsors of Aunt Jemima not only offer her personal appearance here to bake thousands of pancakes, but they also furnish without cost, to the Heart Association, all the pancake mix necessary.

Local firms have volunteered to furnish maple syrup, sausage, milk and coffee, without charge to the Heart Association, just to assure a big success.

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Central YMCA and a number of volunteer girls from home economic departments will assist in serving.

The project is so set up that it costs the Heart Association nothing, and all funds raised go to the heart fund, Geare explained. Some communities report they have attracted as many as 5,000 pancake eaters in a single day.

Several local organizations and employee groups, approached about the idea, bought blocks of hundreds of tickets. Geare said the price of tickets, which is actually a donation to the Heart Fund is one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. "This covers all you can eat," Geare said.

Road Complaints Heard By Board

Three county road complaints were presented to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday morning.

Sherman Athey and Columbus Delawder of Spring Gap appeared at the commissioners' meeting to ask about placing shale on Frog Hollow Road near the Mill Stone off Uhl Highway. They said the road has become rutted because a Warrior Mountain man has been hauling timber out the road.

The other complaints were in letters. Mrs. Fay Plaugher of Westernport asked for an investigation and recommendations for improvements on the road which leads from Westernport to strip mines in Garrett County. She said that during the snowy season coal was dumped on the road so that trucks headed for the mines could pull the hills.

Now there is a fine coal dust over everything in her neighborhood. Mrs. Plaugher asserted. She asked whether sand and salt might serve the same purpose as the coal, and not create so much mess.

J. H. Tipton of North Branch wrote to ask the commissioners if they could improve the dirt road which leads from his property to the nearest hard-surfaced road. All three complaints were referred to J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor, for investigation and report.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Benefit Party

Fulton Myers Legion Auxiliary will hold a games party at the post home Monday, beginning at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. Hilda Stephens, acting president.

The public is invited to the party which is being held to raise funds for the auxiliary's donations to fund appeals. Refreshments will be available.

Bicentennial Leaders Are Being Named

Meeting Set Monday On Date For Pageant

The committee planning the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial yesterday appointed chairmen for a number of important committees for the celebration, but called a special meeting for Monday at 4 p. m. in City Hall to consider a change in the date for the historical pageant which will highlight the year-long events.

Appointments include Edmund S. Burke, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company as co-chairman of the Finance Committee; Thomas B. Finan, city attorney, chairman of the Hospitality Committee; J. William Hunt, Souvenir Program Committee; Mrs. Marguerite Findlay, City Beautification and Tree Planting; Julius E. Schindler, Speakers Committee, and A. T. Brust Jr., Publicity Committee.

Will Name Others

Col. F. Edgerton Powell, chairman of the Steering Committee, said chairmen of other committees will be appointed soon.

The Executive Committee made plans to hold meetings each Friday at 4 p. m. in City Hall in order to expedite the plans for the many events which will be held here this year.

Monday's special meeting was arranged by Lewyn C. Davis, Steering Committee secretary, to consider plans for changing the dates for the pageant.

The action was taken after it was learned that the State Fair Board has scheduled the Cumberland Fair for the week of August 21, which would conflict with plans to hold the pageant August 21-27.

Conflict Develops

The selection of an appropriate date for the spectacle has been a thorny problem.

The first time considered was August 7 to 13, but that conflicted with the August 3 to 13 dates selected for the Cumberland Races.

The committee is reluctant to schedule the pageant later than August, due to the opening of school and the fact that the Board of Education wants the pageant—which will be presented in Fort Hill Stadium—over soon enough to allow the turf of the stadium to recover fully.

Meeting Planned To Select Name For New Bridge

A meeting will be held here next Friday to discuss the name for the new bridge which is being erected between Cumberland and Ridgeley at Riverside Park.

The conference will be held on March 4 at 2 p. m. in the office of Mayor Roy W. Eves, who has been asked to arrange the meeting.

Attending will be representatives of Knobley Post 136, American Legion, of Ridgeley; Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, and Henry Hart Post 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars, both of Cumberland, the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial Committee, the Allegany County Historical Society and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Officials said it is urgent that a decision be reached soon on the name of the bridge, which is to be opened this year in connection with the 200th anniversary of the fort which gave this city its name.

A number of suggestions have been made. They include the Shuck Memorial Bridge, suggested by the Ridgeley Legion in honor of Marine Sgt. William E. Shuck Jr., who was awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously for valor during the Korean War.

George Washington Crossing Bridge is also being considered, and backers point out that the name would be particularly appropriate during the bicentennial.

Memorial Bridge and Blue Bridge have also been suggested for the span which is to be completed this year to replace the present Blue Bridge.

Delegate See Seeks Kimble's Senate Post

GOP Committee Will Consider Applicants

The news of the confirmation of Senator Robert B. Kimble as chairman of the Department of Employment Security yesterday set off a flurry of speculation as to his successor.

Among those who will seek the Senate post which will become vacant at the end of the present session is Delegate Charles M. See, chairman of the Allegany County Delegation.

Del. See yesterday said he had mailed applications to the Republican State Central Committee for consideration to fill the unexpired term for the post which will become vacant upon the resignation of Sen. Kimble.

Del. See said letters asking consideration for the appointment have been mailed to all members of the committee.

Cites Experience

He said he felt his 17 years of experience in the General Assembly qualifies him for the advancement.

Delegate See has served continuously in the House of Delegates since he was first elected in 1938. He has served on all major committees of the House except the Education and the Chesapeake Bay committees.

He has served as chairman of the Delegation since 1951, and is exceeded in continuous length of service only by Delegate C. Ray Barnes of Carroll County.

The persistent rumor in Annapolis is that Del. Noel Speir Cook would be shifted to the Senate seat and that J. Glenn Beall Jr. would be nominated for the House post vacated by Cook.

The Republican State Central Committee of Allegany County, which will submit a recommendation on the vacancy, has as yet taken no action.

Takes No Action

The Central Committee's position on the upcoming vacancy was explained yesterday by James S. Getty, chairman.

Getty said the committee, "at this time," has no information regarding the effective date of Senator Kimble's resignation.

He said he had been informed that Senator Kimble's nomination as chairman of the Department of Employment Security had been confirmed by the Senate, but that until Kimble has actually resigned from the Senate, there is no vacancy to be filled, and the committee can take no action.

He added, "We will, of course, consider the various individuals who may make applications, but beyond that, any action on our part would be premature."

GOP To Decide

The final decision on Senator Kimble's successor will be made by the GOP Committee.

Getty said Section 13 of Article 3 of the Maryland Constitution provides that in case a vacancy occurs "the Governor shall appoint a person to fill such a vacancy from a person whose name shall be submitted to him in writing by the State Central Committee of the political party with which the Delegate or Senator, so vacating, has been affiliated... and it shall be the duty of the Governor to make such appointment within 15 days after the submission."

Informed sources said confirmation of such appointments is virtually certain.

Of thing was sure yesterday—that the job will not go begging. The situation was well expressed by one Republican who said, "The applicants are legion."

Senator Kimble expects to take several weeks off after the present session of the Assembly ends about April 4 to make a last trip over the territory covered by his job as B.O. safety supervisor.

He is expected to take over his new duties in Baltimore on June 1.

Surplus Food Registration Will Start

Registration for the April shipment of surplus foods to this county will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the local Red Cross offices, according to Mrs. Lee Witherup, executive secretary.

Throughout the county, the usual registration conducted each month will also be held. Lonaconing, Midland, Barton, Luke-Westernport, Mt. Savage and Eckhart will register also on March 1, 2 and 3, however, at Frostburg the registration will be held on Monday, February 28, Tuesday, March 1 and Wednesday, March 2.

In all Red Cross branches except Frostburg, it has been found that the first three days of the month, if they fall without breaking over a weekend, seem to suit more people. At Frostburg, the first three days of the week nearest registration dates seem to be more satisfactory.

The February distribution of surplus food commodities was completed here yesterday.

Seeks Liquor License

Carl F. Decker yesterday filed an application with the Allegany County Board of License Commissioners for a beer, wine and liquor license at 402 Virginia Avenue.

Kimble Is Confirmed For Employment Post

SEN. ROBERT B. KIMBLE

Will End 23-Year Term In Assembly

By LOU PANOS

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 25 (AP) — Sen. Robert B. Kimble, 51-year-old dean of the Maryland Senate, was dramatically named and immediately confirmed today as chairman of the Department of Employment Security.

Gov. McKeldin's nomination of the Republican from Allegany County had been expected for days but was delayed to give him extra time to decide whether he wanted the $10,000-a-year job.

He will finish out this legislative session and begin serving a six-year term in the spring, succeeding Daniel E. Klein, who was appointed in 1953 to fill a vacancy.

Kimble's acceptance marked the signing off of a 23-year tenure in the Legislature, exceeded only by that of Del. C. Ray Barnes, the Carroll County Republican whose career dates back to 1926.

Is Friend Of Labor

All but two years of Kimble's service have been in the Senate. He was elected to the House in a special 1932 election, surviving the Roosevelt Democratic landslide.

A native of Williamsport, Washington County, Kimble will head an agency operating 17 field offices to help unemployed find work, recruit labor for harvesting Maryland crops and administering unemployment compensation.

Unemployment has been one of the biggest problems in recent years in Allegany County, where Kimble had developed a reputation as a friend of labor.

All week there had been speculation in the State House about whether Kimble would leave his post as veteran minority leader for the state-wide office and about who might succeed him.

The most prominent report was that Del. Noel Speir Cook (R-Allegany) would shift to the Senate seat and young J. Glenn Beall, son of the U. S. Senator, would step into Cook's place in the House.

Wins Congratulations
Before reading clerk Charles Cohen finished announcing McKeldin's official nomination of Kimble, Sen. Hoff (R-Carroll) was on his feet to move immediate confirmation.

This touched off a flood of congratulations and farewell oratory from half a dozen senators. Upon adjournment of the session Kimble was besieged by hand-shaking colleagues in a demonstration which moved him to tears.

Hoff, whom Kimble had described as his "vice minority leader," said he was asking "with mixed emotion" that the nomination be confirmed on the spot instead of being referred to a standing committee for consideration, as were the hundreds of nominations McKeldin submitted to the Senate last Wednesday.

"We have no desire to lose our minority leader," said Hoff, "but we are proud to see him elevated to this position."

Praised By Governor
Majority Leader Turnbull (D-Balto County), recalling that only two days ago he reluctantly joined in the immediate confirmation of a minor appointee and had declared he would never do so again, said he was prepared to "eat my words" in this case and gladly go along.

Sen. Della (D-Balto 6th), majority leader throughout the last term, said he was glad to second Hoff's motion for a man who had served "with integrity and honesty."

A light note was added by Sen. Phoebeus (R-Somerset), who recalled that for many years he had sat beside Kimble in the Senate chamber, watching him repeatedly refer to the rule book to challenge Democratic opponents.

"And I only hope," said Phoebeus, "that whoever takes his place, will not wave that little red rule book in my face and pound on my desk instead of on his own like he did."

"He has been a competent and conscientious senator," said McKeldin after learning of the confirmation, "and I am quite sure he will carry these same qualities with him in his new post."

Tax Slash Is Voted By House

Expense Plan Is Rejected In Senate Vote

Solons Are Against
Tax-Free Allowance
Feature By 62 To 7

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Senate, with a wary eye on tax-paying voters back home, voted 62-7 today against accepting a $1,250 tax-free allowance as part of a congressional pay increase bill.

Legislation raising the salaries of senators and representatives from $15,000 to $23,750 a year was sent back to conference with the House with instructions to knock out the tax-free allowance feature.

Critics of the allowance said it would lead the man-in-the street to "point the finger of suspicion" at all Congress members. Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) called the allowance a "gimmick."

Kefauver Defends Plan

Sens. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Dirksen (R-Ill.) defended it as a bona fide expense allowance. Former Vice President Barkley (D-Ky.) spoke out against it. It was Barkley's first major floor speech since he returned to the Senate in January. The opposition became an avalanche.

The House passed the bill earlier in the day by voice vote. Many members expected it would be on its way to the White House tonight in plenty of time for President Eisenhower's signature before the start of the next congressional pay period, March 1.

The bill also carries pay increases for the federal judiciary and Justice Department officials. There was no objection to these, only to what Monroney called the gimmick, and to another new feature: five more trips to home and back every year for all Congress members at government expense.

Conferees To Meet

Both of these features were written in by a Senate-House conference committee yesterday. The conferees met to compromise differences between the House, which had voted to raise congressional salaries to $25,000 a year, and the Senate, which held the figure to $22,500.

Barkley told the Senate that if Congress is going to raise its pay it should do so directly, "Not under a guise."

Mrs. Gladys L. Robinson charged filmfand's "tough guy" with mental and physical cruelty. She said they separated only two days ago, and her petition listed community property with a value of $3½ million dollars.

The action came as a surprise although Robinson said, "There has been a growing lack of understanding between us."

No specific acts of cruelty were mentioned. Robinson was ordered to appear in Superior Court of March 4 for a hearing on whether he should be restrained from disposing of any community assets pending outcome of the trial.

Maybe There's Future President In This Family

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 25 (AP)—There ought to be a future president somewhere in the Fleche family.

Timothy, the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleche, was born in 1949 on Oct. 27, Theodore Roosevelt's birthday. Michael was born in 1952 on Feb. 22, George Washington's birthday. Peter arrived last year on Feb. 12, Abraham Lincoln's birthday.

And this year along came the first daughter, Ellen Marie, on Washington's birthday.

Harlan Denies He Backs Idea Of "One World"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—John Marshall Harlan, President Eisenhower's nominee for the Supreme Court, denied today he favors any "one world" or internationalist movement that would interfere with the sovereignty of the United States.

Harlan testified at an open hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee, which is considering his nomination. Several previous witnesses opposed his selection for the high court on the ground he has been associated with the Atlantic Union movement.

Officials of the Atlantic Union say it opposes world government, but favors exploring the idea of closer ties, by federal union or otherwise, among Atlantic democracies.

The committee ended its hearing with Harlan's testimony. Chairman Kilgore (D-WVa.) said a vote on confirming the nomination cannot be taken until the printed record of the hearings is available, and that will not be before the middle of next week.

Harlan's nomination has been before the Senate since last November and Eisenhower has administered several prods in the hope of getting it acted upon. He is now a federal district judge in New York.

The main witness against Harlan today was George Racey Jordan, of New York, representing an organization called the American Coalition. The organization describes itself as a combination of groups devoted to preserving constitutional government. Jordan is also a supporter of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Harlan said he firmly believed the United States must take the leadership of the free world in the present international situation. But he said whatever this country does "must be done under the laws and Constitution of the United States."

Beyond such general statements, Harlan asked to be excused from answering questions about what he would or would not do in a given set of circumstances. He said that as a possible Supreme Court justice it would be highly improper for him to comment on matters that might come before him.

Reject Bond Scheme

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Treasury disclosed today it has asked savings bond sellers to help prevent bond sales that may be "part of a chain letter scheme."

West Germany Leader Fights On Saar Issue

Adenauer Defends Pact With France, Parties Leave Him

BONN, Germany, Feb. 25 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer struggled tonight to save his Saar agreement with France from death in the West German Parliament.

All hope for French approval of German sovereignty and rearmament depended on the outcome.

Adenauer experienced his gravest hours as Chancellor in defending his temporary renunciation of 960,000 German-speaking Saarlanders in their coal-rich frontier valley.

Attacked by opposition Socialists for "treason to the Saar," Adenauer was deserted on the issue by two of the government's four parties—the Free Democrats and the Refugees. They total 74 deputies, but not all may vote no.

May Vote For Pact

In fact, for a four-hour conference of Free Democratic deputies, party chairman Thomas Dehler said 10 or 11 of them probably will vote for the pact. Dehler had led a fight against it. But he said everyone in the party has a right to vote according to his conscience.

Adenauer's own Christian Democratic Union, which normally has a one-vote majority of 244 in the Bundestag, rallied behind him. However, three CDU deputies, expelled from their birthplace in the French-occupied Saar in 1953 for pro-German politics, refused their support.

The German party, fourth and smallest government party with 15 deputies, stuck with Adenauer.

The Saar agreement is one of the five Paris treaties which France insists must be ratified by the Germans as a package if the Bonn Republic is to be granted independence and admitted to the Atlantic Alliance.

Debate Is Begun

A bitter debate was begun by the Bundestag yesterday morning. It will culminate tomorrow night in a decisive vote. Communist street demonstrations against Adenauer were staged in Bonn yesterday. Heavily reinforced police encountered no troublemakers today.

As spokesman for 47 Free Democrat deputies, Dr. Max Becker told the chancellor:

"We are ready to give gold and goods (to France) but not land and people."

Adenauer replied sharply "This speech is the worst kind of thing from the standpoint of German interests."

Eight Countries Agree On Action In Bangkok Talks

BANGKOK, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—The eight Manila Pact nations agreed yesterday on united action "to preserve and strengthen the peace" of Southeast Asia and block "those subtle forms of aggression by which freedom and self-government are undermined and men's minds are subverted."

The decisions wound up a three-day conference which set up permanent headquarters in Bangkok and created committees to deal with military, subversive and economic problems.

Despite some sharp differences of opinion, international communism was mentioned in the final communiqué of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization as a menace against which members were united. It was the first time the word communism appeared in an official SEATO document since the pact was signed in Manila last September.

"The way of the aggressor has been made harder," summed U.S. Secretary of State Dulles.

The communiqué said delegates met "in circumstances which give increasing urgency to objectives of the treaty." This apparently referred to the Formosa situation on which Dulles conferred at length with British Foreign Secretary Eden during their stay in Bangkok.

Even before the conference ended yesterday, military advisers began discussing plans "to take all possible measures" for defense of freedom in the Orient.

The conference's final communiqué emphasized that these military arrangements, to be built around an American force in the Pacific of 650,000 men, "will never be used for purposes of aggression."

Bridge Wouldn't Open, Reporter Discovers Reason

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 25 (AP)—The Point Street swing bridge here wouldn't open for two hours today.

While a tug and barge waited above the span, a troubleshooter from the city electrician's office pored over blueprints trying to locate circuit trouble.

Robert C. Fredericksen, Journal-Bulletin waterfront reporter, dropped in to get the story.

Pointing to an open switch, he suggested to the bridge tender that the swing might work better if the switch were closed.

It did.

Thorne Estate Is Inventoried

CHICAGO, Feb. 25 (AP)—An inventory of the possessions of the late Montgomery Ward Thorne was filed today in Probate Court.

The most valuable items, estimated at two million dollars, is a "vested two thirds interest in the trust estate of Gordon C. Thorne," father of Montgomery and heir before him to a mail order fortune.

Among other items were 22 pairs of socks, a "lady's TV coat," a "lady's striped dress," a bag of leftover jars of peanut butter and mustard, two comic books and a cap marked with the name Maureen.

Young Thorne, 20, was found dead—of natural causes, a coroner's jury found later—June 19. A will the youth drew up nine days before he died left half of his estate to a girl friend, Maureen Ragen, one fourth to her mother, and split the balance between his own mother, Mrs. Marion Thorne, and an aunt.

Mrs. Thorne, chief beneficiary under an earlier will, is contesting the later will in the courts.

National China Forces Sent To Matsus Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—Strong reports persisted today that the Nationalist garrison which abandoned Nanchishan in a secrecy-guarded 41-hour operation was taken 60 miles south to reinforce the Matsus Islands.

The Matsus, 100 miles west of Formosa's northern tip, guard the approaches to the big Red port of Foochow.

Although the United States has made no public commitment, the Nationalists have indicated belief they would get U. S. help in defending both the Matsus and Quemoy, guarding the approaches to Amoy.

Inability to get such help for defense of Nanchishan, 140 miles northwest of Formosa, coupled with Red landings on islands both north and south, apparently prompted the withdrawal at 7 p. m. Feb. 23 and completed at noon Friday.

The Nationalists were silent on the size of the garrison, estimated unofficially at 5,000 but said the evacuation drew no interference from the Reds as close as 12 miles north.

The exit was strictly a Nationalist show—in contrast with evacuation of the Tachens, 200 miles northwest of Formosa, under covering guns of the powerful U. S. 7th Fleet.

A Defense Ministry communiqué said the Nanchishan evacuation completed "redeployment of the forces of the Tachen defense area." It said this was done to strengthen the defense of Formosa, the Pescadores, Quemoy and the Matsus.

Britain Demands Every Effort To Reach Agreement

LONDON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Britain called on the world's major atomic powers today for every ounce of effort to get an agreement on disarmament.

Opening a secret conference of the U. N. Disarmament Commission subcommittee, British Minister of State Anthony Nutting declared:

"All mankind will agree that there is no hope of attaining real and lasting peace without real all-around disarmament. It is in this spirit that my government and I feel sure, all our governments approach this renewed attempt to seek an agreement."

"In this modern scientific age, none of us must spare one ounce of effort in the fulfillment of this trust."

Weapons Race Gets Attention

Delegates of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada convened in stately Lancaster House as the nuclear weapons race claimed attention on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Russia declares it has forged ahead of the United States in atomic and hydrogen weapons production. Britain is about to produce its own hydrogen bomb and is converting its armed forces for H-bomb warfare. The United States is firing a new series of atomic test explosions at the Las Vegas, Nev., proving grounds.

Western delegates expressed pessimism about prospects of getting Russia to agree to a general program for scrapping of nuclear weapons and steep cuts in conventional arms such as planes and tanks.

Weapons Bogged Down

Previous arms talks with the Russians have bogged down in word battles. Informants said U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., sees no solid indications that the Kremlin is ready to compromise this time. Russia is represented here by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The Moscow radio already has charged that the West hamstringing the London conference by barring Red China and insisting on secret sessions.

But informants said the Russians held off during this afternoon's 70-minute session on making demands for procedural changes that could have resulted in disruption of the talks. Discussion centered on how the parley is to be conducted. The next meeting was set for Tuesday.

Ike Is Defied As Democrats Pass Measure

Income Tax Cut Put In Package Bill, 210 To 205

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—House Democrats defied President Eisenhower today and passed their bill to cut income taxes $20 a person beginning next Jan. 1.

The bill, stirring up one of the closest and warmest political scraps in years, now goes to the Senate where its future is doubtful at best. If it should pass that chamber, it faces a possible veto by Eisenhower.

In the crucial vote in the House, Democrats nailed the income tax cut into a package tax bill by a roll call of 210-205. The margin of five votes—forged in the last few seconds of the tense voting—defeated a Republican motion to knock the income tax cut out of the measure.

Sides Exactly Even

At the end of the regular poll of House members, unofficial tallies showed the two sides were exactly even. Both Democratic and Republican leaders scurried frantically for last-second votes.

There were some hurried switches, and Democrats brought in a few more latecomers. Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), who had pushed through the tax cut over Eisenhower's strong opposition, announced the final score to a hushed House. Democrats erupted in wild applause and back-slapping.

Then the House passed the package bill, 210-175,

State Launches Plan For School Children To Get Polio Shots

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25 (AP)—The State Health Department today launched plans to administer the Salk polio vaccine to the 150,000 first and second graders in all Maryland schools this Spring.

Whether the shots are given depends on a still uncompleted evaluation report being made on inoculations administered last year to 440,000 youngsters across the country.

The final decision is expected sometime in April.

Dr. Robert H. Riley, Director of the State Health Department, said it is necessary to go ahead now and make the arrangements so no time will be lost then.

The goal is to complete the series of three injections before school is out and the polio season rolls around in early summer.

Maryland had one of its best years for polio in 1954 with only 152 cases which produced paralysis and only six deaths.

The main trouble spot was Cambridge.

In 1953 there were 309 paralytic cases and 26 deaths; in 1952 it was 200 and 14. The lowest incidence in recent history was in 1951, with but 78 cases and six deaths. That followed one of the worst years, 481 cases and 28 deaths in 1950.

Injections will be given only to those children whose parents sign a formal request.

The vaccine, if it is finally licensed for general use, also will be available to private physicians.

It will be provided free by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

First and second graders were chosen for the program because children in their age bracket are most susceptible to polio.

"The administration of three shots of vaccine to so many children in our state will be a tremendous task," Dr. Riley said.

"It will require the cooperation of parents, health and education officials, physicians, nurses and many other volunteers."

"We have high hopes this vaccine will work. Therefore we are making full plans for a vaccine program so that we will be prepared to move immediately into action if we get the green light."

"The vaccine will not be offered to anyone until the official report is issued, and then only if the report shows that the vaccine prevents paralytic polio under natural conditions and the vaccine is licensed."

Dr. Jonas Salk of Pittsburgh devised the vaccine and no untoward results have been reported from the 440,000 youngsters inoculated last year.

Dr. Thomas J. Francis Jr. of the University of Michigan is now working on a report evaluating its effectiveness in preventing polio.

House Rejects Rock Fish Ban

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 25 (AP)—The House of Delegates ended their long stalling over rock fish today by decisively rejecting a proposal that none be caught in January and February.

Actively supported by organized sports fishermen, the two month ban which would have hit commercial catchers when their market price is highest was thrown out by a vote of 62-34.

The tally came on a motion by Del. Machen, (D-Prince Georges) to reverse an unfavorable report by the Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries Committee.

The Senate judicial proceedings committee wrote a virtual end to a measure by Sen. Kimble (R-Allegany) which would have required that state institutions purchase only coal mined under the soil of Maryland. It was testified at a hearing yesterday that the measure would throw about 100 miners out of work in the Cretin area of Garrett County. They work in a mine underneath the Maryland-West Virginia border.

Sen. Malkus (D-Worcester), committee chairman, said it could be brought out on the floor anytime desired. But the 7-0 vote against it in committee with Sen. Friend (R-Garrett) declining to vote, indicated it would have rough sledding. Del. Edwards, chairman of the Garrett delegation in the House announced outright opposition to it yesterday.

Witness Places Fuller At Fatal Shooting Scene

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 25 (AP)—The prosecution dramatically produced testimony today at Albert Fuller's trial that the defendant and a man identified as Arch Ferrell both fled from the parked car where rackets foe A. L. Patterson was shot to death last June 18.

Fuller, 35-year-old former chief deputy sheriff at vice-ridden Phenix City, is charged with murdering Patterson.

The surprise testimony came from Cecil Padgett, 30-year-old construction worker, who said he and his wife had parked across the street from the spot outside Patterson's Phenix City law office where the attorney was killed.

Ferrell, who was chief prosecutor at Phenix City then, also is charged with the murder along with former Alabama Atty. Gen. Si Garrett.

Padgett said he was walking along the sidewalk facing them when he saw Fuller and Patterson walking in front of the building which housed the antiracket crusader's office.

As the two men turned into the parking lot where the slaying occurred, Padgett testified he turned away, crossing the street to where his wife still sat in their parked car.

Three shots rang out as he reached the car, the witness said. "What did you see?" asked the chief prosecutor, Cecil Deason.

"Fuller and to my best judgment Arch Ferrell were there," the witness replied. "Fuller was leaning by the car and they both turned and ran into the lot behind the building."

He said he had known Fuller eight to 10 years and Ferrell about six to eight years.

Two previous witnesses testified they saw Fuller and Ferrell run from the area behind Patterson's office building where today's witness said they were.

Infant Perishes When Shack Burns

WATERLOO, Md., Feb. 25 (AP)—A four-month old baby perished and four other youngsters were burned today when fire swept a shack on the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard near here.

Police reported five young children left alone in the shack with the baby were playing with a jar of kerosene near an oil stove when it exploded.

Burned to death was Charles McKinley Nelson. Another of the victims was his two-year-old brother, Purnell. Also burned were Jacqueline Hall, 3, and her brother Dytian, 2. University Hospital in Baltimore reported two were seriously ill besides being burned.

Hearing On Plan To Canvass Voters Is Postponed

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25 (AP)—Put off indefinitely today was a hearing on a suit to require police to make a detailed voter canvass in Baltimore.

The suit was brought by Francis X. Dippel, Democratic candidate for mayor.

The hearing set for today was put off indefinitely because of another suit in which three candidates seek to force election officials to give them a complete list of voters.

Dippel in his suit cited a little known and completely ignored law which requires police to make reports to the Board of Election Supervisors on every person over 21 who moves.

Radio, TV Libel Bill Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Congress was asked today to protect radio and television stations from libel actions arising from broadcast by political candidates.

Sen. Butler (R-Md) introduced a bill which would protect stations from libel suits "because of any defamatory statement made by a legally qualified candidate for public office" during a broadcast. It would not cover cases in which the broadcasters "participate in such broadcast willfully, knowingly and with intent to defame."

Butler said in a statement that the law now, in effect, "places the broadcasters in the unpleasant and un-American role of censor."

"It is unfair to make them share responsibility with the political candidate for public office," he added. "He alone should be held strictly accountable under the law for statements made over the airwaves."

All candidates should be willing to assume that responsibility.

"In the past when broadcasters in attempting to carry out the provisions of law have interfered with what a candidate wanted to say they have frequently caused ill feeling and been unfairly accused of political favoritism. They have also been haled into court as codefendants when they were in complete disagreement with what the candidate had to say."

U. S. Arranges Return Of Seven China Fishermen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The United States has arranged to return seven castaway fishermen to their Red China homes at the same time it is hinting broadly that Peiping should do likewise for 15 imprisoned American fliers.

The Chinese fishermen, it was learned today, were rescued last May by U.S. Air Force planes. They had been stranded on a reef in the Parcel Islands, about 200 miles off Indochina in the South China Sea.

The fishermen were taken to the Air Force base at Manila. They told officials they wanted to return to their homes on Hainan Island just off the Red China mainland.

The Philippine government, notified of this, ascertained through British sources at Peiping that Red China would accept the fishermen. The Red Cross at Manila agreed to handle the return, expected about next Tuesday.

American officials, still trying to gain the release of 15 American fliers held inside Red China, called the whole situation to the attention of Dag Hammarskjold, secretary general of the United Nations. It was emphasized to Hammarskjold that the United States behaves in a civilized fashion and sends castaway home as quickly as possible.

Hammarskjold visited Peiping early last month in an effort to secure the release of the 15 American airmen. He has been unsuccessful so far.

Eleven of the U.S. airmen have been sentenced to prison terms as "spies." Like the four others, they were captured during the Korean War, but held back when prisoners were exchanged.

Dulles To Visit Southeast Asia

BANGKOK, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles leaves Bangkok today for home, via troubled spots of Southeast Asia.

He said he may visit Formosa if time permits.

His schedule calls for him to go to Burma and then to the Indochinese states of Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam.

From Indochina he will fly to Manila, arriving Tuesday. A Formosa visit, if he can get it in, would follow the Philippines stop.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The National Coal Assn. today estimated bituminous production in the week ended Feb. 19 was 8,875,000 tons, compared with 8,690,000 tons the previous week and 7,245,000 in the corresponding week of 1954.

Sees Emergency Film, Tries Test For Authenticity

CHICAGO, Feb. 25 (AP)—Home from kindergarten with the mumps, Daniel Cherullo, 5½, whiled away his time by watching television today.

One of the programs was an educational bit showing youngsters what to do in case of emergencies. When it ended, Daniel decided to make a personal check on its authenticity.

He went to the telephone dialed the operator and reported his house was on fire. Then he told his mother what he had done.

She thought he was kidding her. The three fire trucks that screamed to a stop in front of the house proved he wasn't.

Hospital Rioters

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 25 (AP)—The eight riot leaders at Crownsville State Hospital last night started another ruckus in the Anne Arundel County Jail today but were separated before the disturbance became serious.

Deputy Sheriff Norman Alton said the eight, insane criminals normally kept under maximum security at the Crownsville institution for Negroes, complained about the food they got for supper. The noisy disturbance lasted about 20 minutes but little damage was done.

County Rescinds Action Seeking State Loan

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday sent a letter to C. L. Wannen, comptroller of the State Roads Commission, informing him that the county wishes to rescind its action of last November in seeking to participate in state loan funds in the amount of $150,000.

William H. Lemmert, president of the board, said it was decided to forego participation in the state roads loan program because of the necessity of "cutting every corner" as far as county expenditures are concerned.

The board received official notification from Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, from the minutes of a recent meeting of the Board of Education, on the stand of the school board in connection with the teacher salary increase.

The commissioners had asked for the official notification a few days ago. The school board is still standing firm on its proposal for a $300 salary increase for the coming school term and an additional $100 the following year. This would make next school term salaries range from $3,100 to $4,900 and the following year $3,200 to $5,000.

A letter signed by Betty B. Fazenbaker, corresponding secretary of the Central Elementary PTA in Lonaconing, stated that group was supporting a $500 increase the next school term for teachers.

Yesterday's session of the board was attended by four Fort Hill High School ninth grade students. They talked with the commissioners about their duties as part of their school work.

The students are Sandra George, Dorothy Harper, Frederick Evans, and James Diehl.

Celanese Declares Stock Dividends

Directors of Celanese Corporation of America have declared a dividend of 12½¢ a share on the common stock payable March 24 to holders of record March 7, 1955.

The board also voted regular quarterly dividends of 1.12½¢ on the preferred stock series "A" and 1.75¢ on the 7 per cent second preferred stock. Both preferred stock dividends are payable April 1, 1955 to holders of record March 7, 1955.

Sports Car Race Groups Appointed

Committee chairmen for the Cumberland Sports Car Races to be held May 13, 14 and 15, at Municipal Airport have been appointed by William R. Carscaden, general chairman.

This will be the third annual sports car race to be sponsored by the Cumberland Lions Club.

The club is working to make this year's races a national event. For the past two years, the Steel Cities Region (Pittsburgh Region) of the Sports Car Club of America has been conducting the technical racing part of the event.

The general chairman reported that already he personally has received 20 requests for hotel accommodations from those who attended the Cumberland races in the past two years.

Mrs. Amtower Hurt In Blaze

A former Cumberland woman is reported in "satisfactory" condition in Ames, Iowa, hospital after suffering burns and shock when a flash fire, believed to have resulted from accumulation of gas, damaged her new home February 15.

She is Mrs. Warren C. Amtower, 26, the former Rose Marie Milburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Milburn, 400 York Place. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Amtower, 203 Arch Street.

Mothers of the couple, Mrs. Milburn and Mrs. Amtower, are in Ames with their daughter and son. Attached at Mary Greeley Hospital said Mrs. Warren Amtower suffered second and third degree burns of the face and back and her hair was almost burned off. Her face was not badly injured, they said.

The Amtowers' $12,000 home is just a month old.

Warren Amtower, who is a bacteriologist and works at the Hog Cholera Research Station for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was at work when the accident occurred. He and his wife have resided in Ames since 1951.

A PROBLEM OF TIMING

THE precise timing of such a hand as the following is no simple matter for the average player or the expert.

North dealer. Both sides vulnerable.

♠ K 9 5
 ♥ A Q 7 4
 ♦ A K 10 5 2
 ♣ J
 ♠ A 7
 ♥ J 10 9 8
 ♦ J 6 3

The bidding:
 North East South West
 1♦ Pass 2♠ Pass
 2♥ Pass 4♠ Pass
 3NT Pass 6♠ Pass
 Pass Pass

North's overall bidding was somewhat questionable—since he "reversed" with hearts on the second round and jumped from two spades to three notrump, he had little left for the urging five-spade bid—but the slam was not an unreasonable venture.

West, holding considerable strength in South's obviously long

100 pounds of fluid milk containing four per cent butterfat.

It takes about two ounces of coal in a coal burning locomotive or two teaspoons of oil in a diesel locomotive to move a ton of freight club suit, might well have tried to protect that holding by leading the ace and another trump, but he elected to open the top of his heart sequence. Declarer put up dummy's ace, cashed the club ace and ruffed a low club, then trumped a heart to lead and ruff another low club. All this, however, was fast shortening South in trumps, and since he could not afford to lead the low spade still in dummy—West would have won and given his partner a club ruff—South had to use another trump on a heart or diamond ruff for re-entry to his own hand. The upshot was that declarer inevitably lost control of the trump suit, and the contract became hopeless.

Now observe the difference if South had cashed both high clubs before ruffing a club (with the spade nine). He would then use one of his own trumps on a heart ruff, and would clear the club suit by ruffing another round with the spade king. Now he would lead the spade five, and nothing the defenders could do would bring them more than one trick, the ace of trumps.

The general analysis of this hand was that the contract could scarcely be made against a really bad break of clubs or trumps, and so there was no good reason for not cashing the ace and king of clubs immediately.

Commissioners Seek Meeting With Delegation

The Allegany County Commissioners hope to arrange a meeting with the county delegates to the Legislature over the weekend while the legislators are home.

A number of calls have been received from the delegates in which they state they would "like more definite information" pertaining to the county. The commissioners pointed out yesterday that last week while in Annapolis to confer with the delegation a nine-page list on the stand of the board on a number of controversial matters was presented.

As far as the rest of the matters are concerned, the commissioners said, the nine-page report lists the stand of the board. It is hoped that at a meeting either today or tomorrow the entire situation can be clarified, the commissioners said.

Thank you, God, for my baby . . . and help me to be worthy of him. He is such a blessed little bit of humanity . . . so innocent . . . untouched by the many evils of the world.

There is so much to teach him, and You have chosen me to be his teacher. You have placed a soul in my clumsy hands, and I am humble before your gift.

How well I realize that in my wonderful task I need the help of the greatest Teacher . . . Your help. My constant prayer will be for guidance . . . so that I may teach my son what is right . . . so that I may set his tiny feet in the right direction on the path of life, and guide his dear little mind into the right channels.

And when the time comes, my son will go to Church . . . because the Church is Your home on earth, and there in Your presence all that I have tried to show him will have true meaning to him, and he will believe.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Household tasks work both for and against you. They beautify your figure—and it's time to consider that, with spring suits in the offing. They can also fatigue you more than necessary if not performed with sense and efficiency.

The more sensible your equipment, the more efficient your cleaning. For example, use long-handled tools that permit comfortable, fast work in upright position. Practice perfect posture—head up, shoulders relaxed, stomach in—as you wax floors and linoleum with a long-handled applicator. Use the same backsaver for going over walls and blinds, cleaning cobwebs from high ceilings, dusting remote corners of closets, washing windows.

You can avoid the bend-over-double of other cleanliness chores by using long-handled cleaner attachments, and by scrubbing the bathtub with a similar type of brush. Such appliances will save woman-hours and energy.

Next time you squat down on the floor, or stoop to pick up some object, remember that plopping and flopping cause muscular strain and tiredness through awkward

One hundred more men have been called back to work at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Keyser car repair shops.

Bus Terminal Damaged In 3-Alarm Fire

An overheated motor in a ventilating system apparently was the cause of a three-alarm blaze which caused considerable damage at the Blue Ridge Bus Terminal shortly before noon yesterday.

One person had to be led to safety as smoke filled the terminal, the adjoining restaurant, the three-story Southern Hotel, Southern Bar, and Sam Barsky's jewelry shop.

George Karoulis, 61, a roomer at the hotel, was found lying in the hall on the third floor, partially overcome by smoke. He was led to safety by Lt. Virgil McClure of Central Fire Company and John Spiker, chauffeur at Central.

Firemen said Karoulis occupied Room 13 on the third floor. Two canaries belonging to the tenant died as a result of the smoke. A number of other caged canaries survived.

Mrs. James Porter, who along with her husband, operates the rooming house, said she smelled smoke and upon opening the door of her second-floor apartment, found the hall filled. She made her way to the street by staying close to the wall until she reached the stairway.

Another roomer, Lee Hilliard, climbed to safety by climbing onto a roof through a second-story window. Ross Keller, another roomer, got to the street by using the stairs.

Joseph B. Decker, transportation supervisor of the Blue Ridge bus concern, discovered the fire about 11:40 a.m. Decker said he was working in the ticket office of the bus terminal when he heard a roar. Investigating, he saw flames shooting up through the ventilating system back of the restaurant.

Decker summoned the fire department with Engine Companies 1 and 3 and Truck Company No. 1 responding.

Firemen managed to confine the blaze to the ventilating system and a small portion of the roof under the bus terminal. An inch or more of water leaked into the terminal. William L. Sheehy, who operates the restaurant, said only three or four customers were in the establishment at the time. However, a Blue Ridge bus from Pittsburgh was due at the time the fire broke out. It was delayed for about an hour.

Decker said some water damage was caused to papers in the office of the bus terminal, although all baggage stored in a room under the ventilator was carried out of the building after the fire was discovered. The blaze attracted several hundred spectators.

that the shooting was over that tax should be reduced, as it was, he added.

Another $1,000,000,000 in tax cuts last year was in excise taxes which are charged on such things as cosmetics, washing machines and long distance phone calls. The reductions enabled more people to buy things they needed, he said. The excess profit tax, adopted during the Korean War, also was repealed.

Along with reduction in taxes, the Eisenhower Administration has lowered the government expenditures. Some $13,000,000,000 was cut out of President Truman's final budget in 1953. For the coming year the federal budget will be $58,000,000,000, compared with $80,000,000,000 in the last Truman year, Hruska said.

After discussing the government's fiscal policies, Senator Hruska turned to the foreign policy situation.

Mrs. Formosa Situation

He described the Formosa Resolution, which empowered President Eisenhower to use American forces in defense of the island off the China coast as a reaffirmation of a policy which has been followed since May 1950.

If Formosa is taken by the Chinese Reds, they will be only 200 miles from the Philippines and be able to outflank Okinawa, the chief American air base in the Pacific.

Senator Hruska closed by citing President Eisenhower's tremendous capacity for greatness and expressed a hope that he will again be the Republican candidate for President in 1956.

James S. Getty, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Allegany County, was toastmaster. He introduced many of the county elected and appointed officials. Miss Loraine Sager, Miss Western Maryland of 1952, and her sister, Mrs. Doris Sager Hadley, sang several duets, accompanied by Miss Mary Lou Eisenbrot.

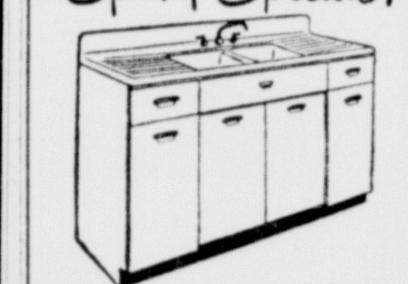

Invocation before the Maryland roast turkey dinner was served was by Rev. Howard Amoss, pastor of Centre Street Methodist Church. He also gave the benediction.

Wilkinson Urges Utility Meter Tax

County Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson yesterday furthered a plan to raise revenue to offset the impending sharp increase in county tax rate.

Wilkinson wants to place a meter tax on the Potomac Edison Company and C&A Gas Company and an equal tax on the C&P Telephone Company.

Wilkinson's resolution was tabled as Board President William H. Lemmert explained there is a bill in the General Assembly that would require utilities to pay their taxes on their holdings to the counties in which they are located.

Senator Kimble Takes A New Job

Senator Robert B. Kimble has accepted and been confirmed as the new chairman of Maryland's Department of Employment Security and we offer him our congratulations and best wishes in his new position.

His decision we know was not an easy one. His 21 years as Allegany County's senator in the General Assembly made him the dean of the Senate while a preceding term in the House of Delegates ranked him as the second oldest legislator in the state in point of service.

Mr. Kimble has been an acknowledged leader in the Senate in addition to his elected status as minority leader and his service on the state's Legislative Council.

Those things are hard to give up even upon moving ahead to a big job like that which he has just accepted after considering Governor McKeldin's offer for the past few days.

An indication of Senator Kimble's status in the Senate can be gleaned from the swiftness with which his nomination to be chairman of the Department of Employment Security was confirmed.

Within 10 minutes after he informed Governor McKeldin of his decision, the nomination had been sent to the Senate. Republican Senator Hoff moved that Senator Kimble be confirmed immediately instead of following the usual procedure, and the motion was seconded by four other senators, Republican and Democrat alike. Confirmation followed almost instantaneously.

While Senator Kimble will not resign from the Senate until the end of this session of the legislature, his decision doubtless will be received with mixed feelings—regret that he is leaving the Senate after so many years of service, and pleasure that he has moved up to one of the topmost positions in the state government.

The question of Senator Kimble's successor will not come up officially, of course, until he resigns from the Senate, but we can imagine meanwhile there will be much activity on the part of aspirants to the post.

Conjecture will run rampant until a successor finally is appointed, but Senator Kimble in the meantime will devote his energies to legislative questions that come before him.

It would be virtually impossible for anyone to serve in the Senate as long as Senator Kimble has without incurring some enmity, but we feel certain that his decisions have been made with the best interest of Allegany County and the State of Maryland at heart.

Senator Kimble indeed has come a long way from his work as a young man on the C. and O. Canal to his new position of trust in the state government. We wish him well.

These Days

Shears And Scissors

It is easy to be theoretical about what does not affect one's own affairs. Actually for the amount of shears and scissors I would ordinarily buy, it would make little difference where the cutting steels come from. However, if I were manufacturing shears, scissors, surgical instruments or manicure sets in the United States at this moment, I would be looking around for something else to do or I might even move my business to some other country and export the goods from there to the American market. It could be more profitable under H.R. 1, now before Congress.

For many years, this industry was protected by a tariff which it regarded as reasonable. Meanwhile, American surgeons found it easy to get their own instruments and improvements manufactured here in the United States. The tariff, on shears and scissors, has now been lowered twice and probably faces a third reduction. The American manufacturer is required to pay wages that are four times higher than wages paid to similar workers in Germany and he cannot translate the difference into a competitive price.

Result: American firms are closing down. The Shears, Scissors and Manicure Implement Manufacturers Association states that the following firms have already discontinued manufacturing these commodities:

Berridge Shear Co., Sturgis, Mich.; Belmar Instrument Co., Belmar, N. J.; Birmingham Cutlery Co., Birmingham, Ala.; Case-Smith Co., Fremont, Ohio; Cameron Manufacturing Co., Emporium, N. Y.; Arthur Corp., Newark, N. J.; Harjan, Inc., East Orange, N. J.; Kafelt Manufacturing Corp., Keene, N. H.; Metrolor Corp., Canton, Ohio; Carl Monks, Ellicottville, N. Y.; Progress Cutlery Co., Fort Smith, Ark.; Rex Cutlery Corp., Irvington, N. J.; T. E. Schneider Corp., S. Norwalk, Conn.; Tri-Ess Products, Inc., Jersey City, N. J.; International Edge Tool Co., Newark, N. J.

Others are expected to follow. It is reported that in Solingen, Germany, and vicinity there are about 800 manufacturers of cutlery, ranging from family work at home to small factories. In addition to manufacturing at about one quarter the American cost, this industry is subsidized by the West German government which receives subsidies from the United States. American manufacturers cannot compete with low wages and indirect American subsidies to German firms, plus a low tariff.

The largest American manufacturer of quality shears and scissors is J. Wiss and Sons. They have now gone out of the surgical scissors business because they cannot remain in it competitively with Germany. The Clauss Cutlery Company reports that it will have to do the same because "our production is almost down to nothing."

There is a theory that when American manufacturers cannot compete in the American market with manufacturers from other countries, they ought to omit making this particular commodity and devote their capital and skill to something else.

That theory might be sound in time of peace. But we are living in a world that is continually within a prospect of war. Therefore, it is essential to conserve those American industries which are needed for war production and those skilled laborers who are becoming all too rare in a period of automatic machine production.

That is a factor in our manufactures that ought to be weighed against the advantage that may come from supporting the economies of those nations which we want to keep on our side. The American industries involved are comparatively small and do not involve huge investments of capital or large numbers of workers. But what they do may be irreplaceable in time of war.

Cheer Up, The Lid Will Soon Be Off

'Stable Dollar' Depends On Voters Understanding It

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—How many people know what is meant by the expression "a stable dollar?" Yet whether America is to have a sound dollar depends upon the number of voters throughout America who understand the meaning of that term.

Hence, when the President of the United States explains it in the simplest language, his words are worth printing in exactly the form in which he uttered them. Paraphrases of condensed dispatches do not always convey the full meaning. And basic education on the importance of the dollar as a unit of purchasing power has been neglected. Only when the dollar begins to buy less and less does the public awaken to the dangers and begin to ask questions as to why the catastrophe has happened.

Cites Danger To Economy

Mr. Eisenhower explained his concept of the dollar when he was asked at his press conference what he thought of the proposal of the majority of the Democrats in the House of Representatives to give everybody a $20 tax cut. The President did not say that tax cuts couldn't be granted while the budget was unbalanced. Indeed the correction of inequitable tax rates last year led actually to an expansion of business and an increase in the total tax receipts. He did say, however, that a tax cut which ignored sound principles of taxation and resulted in inflation was dangerous to the economy.

"Any proposal to reduce taxes," explained the President, "is, of course, popular, and at first glance this is a kind of proposal that should make an appeal to low income brackets. Let's take a little closer look at this proposal and start off with this observation:

"Whenever you have inflation, the immediate effect is to hurt the people of fixed incomes—white-collar workers and others who for the moment, at least, are on relatively fixed incomes. But, in the long run, the person who is hurt most is the person who lays aside savings in the form of pensions, insurance plans, and savings bonds for use in his older age.

"For example, anybody who paid up all of his share of a pension by as early as 1939 was getting in 1953 half of the worth of the dollars, of the worth of the pension plan he had bought.

Expected Deficit Reduced

"Now, when we talk of decreasing revenues at a time when the government, in spite of every saving we have been able to make, is still spending somewhat more than it takes in, we are reaching some kind of heights in fiscal irresponsibility, and because this does have on the surface a popular or appealing appearance, these people apparently hope it may be passed...

"Now, we inherited in 1953 a budget that contemplated a 9.9 billion deficit in federal financing. By hard work—and I assure you it is hard work when you realize that every bureau of government feels it should have more money—we have reduced that to an expected deficit in 1956 of something less than two and a half billion, or in that neighborhood, as estimated.

"Now, (if we increase the deficits) we are going back to deficit spending, the most insidious thing that can happen to a free economy, and particularly in its bad effects upon low income groups. I should like to call your attention to a

Secretary Benson Proposes Increase In Interest Rates To Small Farmers

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Here is one reason why farmers are so irked at the man who is supposed to stand up for them — Secretary Ezra Benson.

The Farm and Home Administration was established to arrange loans for small farmers, either by direct government loan or by guaranteeing loans with local banks and finance institutions at moderate rates.

Despite this, Benson has proposed that the interest rates to small farmers be increased. He first made the proposal to Congress at a time when Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey was reducing interest rates on government bonds, but Congress finally authorized Benson to increase interest rates one per cent but left it up to him to make the final decision.

Meanwhile, Benson had appointed as his new Farm and Home administrator Robert B. McLeish of McAllen, Tex. Mr. McLeish has had little experience with small farmers. Like so many Benson appointees, he is a business executive — president of a short-line railroad and executive vice president of the Sugartex Corporation. Despite this, McLeish was appointed to the job of aiding small farmers.

In this capacity he sent word to local representatives of the Farm and Home Administration that interest rates were to be increased one per cent. Immediately he got a protest, not so much from small farmers, because many of them didn't know about it, but from the banks and finance companies who were to handle the money. They claimed the interest hike was too steep and that small farmers couldn't take such a stiff increase.

Finally, bankers and finance representatives met in Washington, re-emphasized their views and in the end agreed to compromise at an increase of one-half of one per cent.

All of which put the bankers in the position of doing more for the farmers than the man who is supposed to be the farmers' best friend — Ezra Benson.

Who Was The Liar

Two angry Democratic congressmen invaded the GOP cloakroom the other day, cornered an abashed Republican, called him a X! X! X! liar and invited him to take his choice as to which he preferred to fight.

The two boiling Democrats were Jim Richards of South Carolina, chairman of the staff Foreign Affairs Committee and Wayne Hays of Ohio. The startled Republican, Jim Fulton of Pennsylvania, who sometimes votes with the Democrats, decided that this was no time for Democratic fraternization. He declined both offers.

The near-brawl was over a news leak that Fulton earlier had blamed upon Hays. The Ohio congressman retorted that he had been out of town when the information was leaked to the press and demanded to know from Fulton who had accused him. Fulton named Chairman Richards.

Without further formality, the congressman from Pennsylvania marched over to Richards' office for a showdown. But the surprised congressman from South Carolina denied making any such accusation. At this point the two joined forces and set out looking for the Republican congressman from Pennsylvania.

They were told he was relaxing in the Republican cloakroom, which is considered off-limits to Democrats. By this time, however, Richards and Hays were in no mood for protocol. They barged into the GOP sanctuary, unannounced, and confronted Fulton.

"If you say I blamed Wayne for that leak you are a X! X! X!

liar!" Richards opened the conversation.

"I didn't say that," backtracked Fulton.

"You are a X! X! X! liar! That's what you just told me!" shouted Hays, doubling his fists.

"You are a X! X! X! liar on one count or the other," commented Richards, still hot under the collar.

For a few moments everyone spoke at once. Ear witnesses recall only that both Hays and Richards offered to poke Fulton in the nose. He showed no interest in taking on two belligerent Democrats and departed for more peaceful parts, muttering something about people who invaded the privacy of the Republican cloakroom.

Highway Hassle

A series of backstage hassles took place inside the White House before President Eisenhower finally sent his $101,000,000 highway message to Congress.

Chief hassler was Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey who has more to say about Ike's policies than any other man — whether they involve Army cuts or foreign aid to Southeast Asia.

After the highway program got off to a much-publicized start with Gen. Lucius Clay coming down from New York to pose with Ike for the photographers, the whole thing got bogged down over the age-old question: "Where are we going to get the money?"

Secretary Humphrey was the disagreeable poser of this question.

This was why the highway message was scheduled to go to Congress four times and each time postponed.

First it was scheduled for January 27, then hastily sidetracked until the first week in February. Next it was postponed another week to February 14. February 14 came and went, and no highway valentine reached Congress from the President. Next it was scheduled for February 16; but once again postponed to February 22 when it was finally dispatched, without, however, any definite finance plan. The buck was passed to Congress.

Look To Women

We naturally look to women as the conservators of all those fine decencies and virtues that combine to make a community livable.

"The Natural Superiority of Women" is a recent book written by a man. Not meant to humiliate anyone, it may tend to deflate the ego of the lords of creation who have not already been squelched.

Women are superior in many ways. Mothers are patient, perspicacious and plucky.

Wives are better lie detectors than their husbands give them credit for. A wife makes a better widow than a husband does a widower.

It takes time and hard work to make a man, but a beautician can make up a woman in no time, for she has all the arts of technology at her finger ends. But she can't make a Helen of Troy out of a Xantippe.

Today ends "Beauticians' Week," appointed by gubernatorial proclamation. The beautifiers haven't made much noise about it, but it is not too late for this column to wave a flag, and suggest that men present their wives and sweethearts with Eau de Cologne, or arrange for a permanent.

Advisedly yours,

BROTHER BARNABAS

You're Telling Me!

Popcorn has double the energy units found in sirloin steak, says a dietician. Besides that, it's virtually impossible to obtain a steak in a movie theater, to be munched while viewing the feature.

Two New Orleans radio disc jockeys played the same recorded tune over and over again all day and all night long. It's radio stunts like this that ought to boost the sale of television receiving sets.

15 May Start In Santa Anita Handicap Race

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP) — Fifteen horses were named today to take a shot at the $100,000 added Santa Anita Handicap tomorrow, and the 18th running of the winter-time classic once again had the horse experts predicting a wide open battle for the rich prize.

The race will be worth $140,000 gross and the winner will collect $103,200 if all 15 answer the call to take the track tomorrow afternoon.

The King Ranch's Rejected, winner of the race a year ago, may be the individual favorite with a crowd expected to total over 50,000.

Andrew Crevelin's little gray colt, determine the maturity winner this year and the 1954 Kentucky Derby champion, doubtless will be a sentimental choice.

SEVENTH RACE — The Santa Anita Handicap, $100,000 added, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/4 miles (chute).

Legislators Adjourn Until 2 P. M. Monday

By HERB LITTLE

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 25 (AP)—The House defeated today a bill to increase amounts and duration of jobless benefits after a debate in which West Virginia's present high level of unemployment was prominent.

The vote was 51-43. Thirty Democrats joined the 21 Republicans present in voting against the measure.

Approved by a 92-2 vote in the House was a measure setting forth each county's percentage share of a proposed fund for local road construction. Dels. Davis (D-Kanawha) and Bower (D-Calhoun) cast the only votes against the measure, which now goes to the Senate.

The bill is a companion to the two-cent gasoline tax increase which the House approved earlier in the week and sent to the Senate. Half of the increased tax would be set aside for construction and reconstruction of secondary roads. The proposed allocations of the earmarked money are spelled out in the bill passed today.

The Senate, meanwhile, passed a half-dozen bills to which there was no opposition.

One of the Senate measures passed and sent to the House would empower counties to charge a recordation fee for deeds and similar instruments amounting to one per cent of the price of the property conveyed.

One-fourth of revenue so derived would be earmarked for schools, and the sponsor, Sen. Martin (D-Berkeley) estimated that up to five million dollars might be raised for over-all purposes if all 55 counties took advantage of the provisions.

Both House and Senate adjourned until 2 p.m. Monday.

Formosa Plan To Avert War, Hruska Says

Hyde Slaps Demo Tax Bill In GOP Lincoln Day Talk

Some 300 Allegany County Republicans last night heard United States Senator Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska explain the Formosa Resolution as an action which should stabilize the situation in the Far East and may avert war.

Senator Hruska, speaking at a Lincoln Day dinner in Centre Street Methodist Church recreation hall, expressed doubts that Soviet Russia would join with Red China if the latter should attempt its oft-repeated threat to invade Formosa.

"Russia is not going to wait for an excuse if she wants to start a war," asserted the man who rose from a freshman Congressman to a senior Senator in two years.

The Nebraska, making his first public appearance in Cumberland after a number of Lincoln Day talks in Montana and his home state, was introduced by Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde of this district.

Hyde Explains Vote

Congressman Hyde explained why he voted against the Democrat-sponsored Tax Reduction Bill in the House earlier yesterday. He poked fun at the Democrat action on Capitol Hill, where he said they "raised salaries on one end and lowered taxes on the other."

The second-term Congressman turned the bill a neat trick which tied the $20-a-person tax reduction to a bill extending corporation and excise taxes for another year.

Hyde blasted the action of the Democrats in Congress as "fiscal irresponsibility." He said that the $20 a year reduction in taxes will amount to about 38 cents a week. But by cutting federal revenue $2,500,000,000 in a year, he said, it will give an additional spur to inflation and probably will cost the same taxpayer who saved the 38 cents a week 50 cents because of lessened purchasing power for his dollar.

1954 Labor's Best Year

In closing his brief remarks as he introduced Senator Hruska, Congressman Hyde quoted a report from an economist for the American Federation of Labor who said that 1954 was the best post-war year in purchasing power for union labor.

Last year the wage earner got the full benefit of his increased pay envelope, whereas in other years inflation had gobbled up most of the gain, Hyde said. He declared that the tax reduction will destroy the gains that were made last year.

Senator Hruska, who was a freshman Congressman like Hyde during the 83d Congress, moved up to the Senate seat vacated by the death last year of Senator Hugh Butler.

After paying tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican President, Hruska turned to the present Republican President, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

He pointed out that the Eisenhower Administration has extended Social Security coverage to more people, has provided greater benefits and has broadened unemployment insurance, and has added about a dozen laws to check on subversives in government.

He noted that Senator J. Glenn Beall of Frostburg and Congressman Hyde had introduced a bill just this week clearing up discrepancies in unemployment insurance provisions in the District of Columbia.

$7 1/2 Billion In Tax Cuts

In the first two years of the Eisenhower Administration, taxes were cut $7,500,000,000 in a program which the visiting Senator called "substantial, intelligent and true."

He said the 10 per cent drop in individual income taxes wiped out an increase that was provided to help finance the Korean War. Now

Mrs. Shipe Held Under Bond In Infant's Death

Faces Second Degree Murder Charges

Mrs. Dorothy Ernestine Shipe, 22, who was arrested here January 9 in connection with the death of an infant son, has admitted that the child was born alive and that she caused its death by stuffing an undergarment into its mouth, according to Ohio authorities.

Mrs. Shipe is being held under $10,000 bond in Lorain County (Ohio) Jail on a second degree murder charge pending action of the grand jury which meets March 1.

Her husband, Robert L. Shipe, formerly of Oldtown, was not held in connection with the infant's death.

City Police Detective Joseph H. Stutcher yesterday said he had been notified by Lloyd Seekt and Edward Gawlick, deputies of the Lorain County sheriff's office, that Mrs. Shipe had signed a statement admitting the baby was born alive and that she stuffed the undergarment in its mouth.

The body of the baby, who the mother said was born out of wedlock shortly before Christmas 1953, was found locked in a suitcase in a house trailer formerly occupied by the Shipes at Elyria, Ohio. The couple was married last February.

In a statement to local police, Mrs. Shipe previously had said that after the baby was born, she thought it was dead and placed it in the suitcase.

Mrs. Shipe told Ohio authorities that she had not wanted the people with whom she resided in Lorain to know that the child had been born. She also stated that she did not want her parents to learn of the child's birth.

Following her arrest here last month, Ohio authorities came to Cumberland. Mrs. Shipe waived extradition in Circuit Court before Chief Judge George Henderson and was returned to Elyria the next day.

After being questioned in Ohio, she pleaded not guilty to the second degree murder charge.

Sykesville Man Hurt In Crash

A 67-year-old Sykesville resident was reported "fairly comfortable" last night at Sacred Heart Hospital, where he was admitted about 7 p. m. yesterday with injuries sustained in an auto accident a mile east of Flintstone on Route 40. The hospital said James G. B. Coberly sustained a deep laceration of the head and a possible shoulder injury. X-rays have been taken.

State Police said Coberly, driving along, was traveling east on Route 40, ran off the highway, swerved back across the highway, hit an embankment and then struck a utility pole.

The accident occurred about 2:30 p. m. according to Pfc. James F. Lewis.

Drainage Tile Laid On Heavner Farm

The Allegany County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors yesterday heard a report from Martin M. Gordon, Soil Conservation Service aid, that some 1,200 feet of tile was laid during the month on the farm of Justin Heavner near Flintstone.

Gordon said that a group of Flintstone High School v-o-ag students visited the farm while the work was in progress to see the conservation practice.

One new cooperarator was signed up during February, Gordon added. He was Lawrence W. Mallory Sr., who has purchased the 400-acre Taylor McLaughlin farm east of Oldtown.

Senator Hruska Meets Nebraska Native Here

Miss Maude Bean, retired Allegany County home demonstration agent, last night had the opportunity of meeting another generation in a family she knew long ago in Nebraska.

As she shook the hand of Senator Roman L. Hruska last night after his Lincoln Day talk here, she recalled that she worked for his father when she began teaching in Douglas County, Neb., years ago. Senator Hruska's father was superintendent of schools there.

Municipal Band Schedules Varied Concert Mar. 3

A varied 15-selection program including marches, an overture, a rumba and a number of other semi-classical and popular pieces will be presented by the Cumberland Municipal Band in the Fort Hill High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 3.

W. Valgene Routh is conductor of the 40-piece band and Frank Munson is assistant conductor. James Hager, a baritone, will be the guest soloist. The trombone trio includes Howard Andrews, Ray Vernal and Paul Hillaire.

There also will be a dancer in the program, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson. Routh, who is supervisor of music education in the county schools, wanted a dancer to rumba while the band plays "When Yuba Plays the Rumba on the Tuba."

So he contacted a local dance studio and was informed that his own secretary, Miss Ferguson, is an accomplished dancer. So she's doing the rumba sequence. She is a daughter of John A. Ferguson, who teaches vocational industrial arts at Fort Hill.

The opening portion of the free concert will include "His Honor," a march; "Light Cavalry Overture," "Slippery Gentlemen," featuring the trombone trio; "Funiculi, Funicula," and "World Events," a march with Munson as conductor.

Following the march will be "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," the rumba selection, "Remember Chopin," "Reeds to the Front," another march.

Hager then will sing two public favorites, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Trees."

The program will conclude with "A Tribute To Romberg," "Bugle Call Rag" and "Band of America March."

Dress rehearsal will be at 8 p. m. Wednesday at Fort Hill. There will be no admission or collection at the concert.

Aunt Jemima Pancake Party Planned Monday

Heart Fund To End With Huge Benefit

As a climax to the fund campaign of the Allegany County Heart Association, a huge pancake party will be held at Central YMCA Monday from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m.

According to John E. Geare, general campaign chairman, the idea is a novel one in this area, but has been utilized with a great amount of success in many cities and towns.

Actually, it's a big community party, with a personal appearance by Aunt Jemima of pancake fame.

Sponsors of Aunt Jemima not only offer her personal appearance here to bake thousands of pancakes, but they also furnish with out cos. to the Heart Association, all the pancake mix necessary.

Local firms have volunteered to furnish maple syrup, sausage, milk and coffee, without charge to the Heart Association, just to assure a big success.

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Central YMCA and a number of volunteer girls from home economic departments will assist in serving.

The project is so set up that it costs the Heart Association nothing, and a funds raised go to the heart fund, Geare explained. Some communities report they have attracted as many as 5,000 pancake eaters in a single day.

Several local organizations and employe groups, approached about the idea, bought blocks of hundreds of tickets. Geare said the price of tickets, which is actually a donation to the Heart Fund is one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. "This covers all you can eat," Geare said.

Road Complaints Heard By Board

Three county road complaints were presented to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday morning.

Sherman Athey and Columbus Delawder of Spring Gap appeared at the commissioners' meeting to ask about placing shale on Frog Hollow Road near the Mill Stone off Uhl Highway. They said the road has become rutted because a Warrior Mountain man has been hauling timber out the road.

The other complaints were in letters.

Mrs. Fay Plaugher of Westernport asked for an investigation and recommendations for improvements on the road which leads from Westernport to strip mines in Garrett County. She said that during the snowy season coal was dumped on the road so that trucks headed for the mines could pull the hills.

Now there is a fine coal dust over everything in her neighborhood. Mrs. Plaugher asserted. She asked whether sand and salt might serve the same purpose as the coal, and not create so much mess.

J. H. Tipton of North Branch wrote to ask the commissioners if they could improve the dirt road which leads from his property to the nearest hard-surfaced road. All three complaints were referred to J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor, for investigation and report.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Benefit Party

Fulton Myers Legion Auxiliary will hold a games party at the post home Monday, beginning at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. Hilda Stephens, acting president.

The public is invited to the party which is being held to raise funds for the auxiliary's donations to fund appeals. Refreshments will be available.

Bicentennial Leaders Are Being Named

Meeting Set Monday On Date For Pageant

The committee planning the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial yesterday appointed chairmen for a number of important committees for the celebration, but called a special meeting for Monday at 4 p. m. in City Hall to consider a change in the date for the historical pageant which will highlight the year-long events.

Appointments include Edmund S. Burke, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company as co-chairman of the Finance Committee; Thomas B. Finan, city attorney, chairman of the Hospitality Committee; J. William Hunt, Souvenir Program Committee; Mrs. Marguerite Findlay, City Beautification and Tree Planting; Julius E. Schindler, Speakers Committee, and A. T. Brust Jr., Publicity Committee.

Will Name Others

Col. F. Edgerton Powell, chairman of the Steering Committee, said chairmen of other committees will be appointed soon.

The Executive Committee made plans to hold meetings each Friday at 4 p. m. in City Hall in order to expedite the plans for the many events which will be held here this year.

Monday's special meeting was arranged by Lewyn C. Davis, Steering Committee secretary, to consider plans for changing the dates for the pageant.

The action was taken after it was learned that the State Fair Board has scheduled the Cumberland Fair for the week of August 21, which would conflict with plans to hold the pageant August 21-27.

Conflict Develops

The selection of an appropriate date for the spectacle has been a thorny problem.

The first time considered was August 7 to 13, but that conflicted with the August 3 to 13 dates selected for the Cumberland Races.

The committee is reluctant to schedule the pageant later than August, due to the opening of school and the fact that the Board of Education wants the pageant—which will be presented in Fort Hill Stadium—over soon enough to allow the turf of the stadium to recover fully.

Meeting Planned To Select Name For New Bridge

A meeting will be held here next Friday to discuss the name for the new bridge which is being erected between Cumberland and Ridgeley at Riverside Park.

The conference will be held on March 4 at 2 p. m. in the office of Mayor Roy W. Eves, who has been asked to arrange the meeting.

Attending will be representatives of Knoyley Post 136, American Legion of Ridgeley; Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, and Henry Hart Post 141, Veterans of Foreign Wars, both of Cumberland, the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial Committee, the Allegany County Historical Society and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Officials said it is urgent that a decision be reached soon on the name of the bridge, which is to be opened this year in connection with the 200th anniversary of the fort which gave this city its name.

A number of suggestions have been made. They include the Shuck Memorial Bridge, suggested by the Ridgeley Legion in honor of Marine Sgt. William E. Shuck Jr., who was awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously for valor during the Korean War.

George Washington Crossing Bridge is also being considered, and backers point out that the name would be particularly appropriate during the bicentennial.

Memorial Bridge and Blue Bridge have also been suggested for the span which is to be completed this year to replace the present Blue Bridge.

Delegate See Seeks Kimble's Senate Post

GOP Committee Will Consider Applicants

The news of the confirmation of Senator Robert B. Kimble as chairman of the Department of Employment Security yesterday set off a flurry of speculation as to his successor.

Among those who will seek the Senate post which will become vacant at the end of the present session is Delegate Charles M. See, chairman of the Allegany County Delegation.

Del. See yesterday said he had mailed applications to the Republican State Central Committee for consideration to fill the unexpired term for the post which will become vacant upon the resignation of Sen. Kimble.

Del. See said letters asking consideration for the appointment have been mailed to all members of the committee.

Cites Experience

He said he felt his 17 years of experience in the General Assembly qualifies him for the advancement.

Delegate See has served continuously in the House of Delegates since he was first elected in 1938. He has served on all major committees of the House except the Education and the Chesapeake Bay committees.

He has served as chairman of the Delegation since 1951, and is exceeded in continuous length of service only by Delegate C. Ray Barnes of Carroll County.

The persistent rumor in Annapolis is that Del. Noel Speir Cook would be shifted to the Senate seat and that J. Glenn Beall Jr. would be nominated for the House post vacated by Cook.

The Republican State Central Committee of Allegany County, which will submit a recommendation on the vacancy, has as yet taken no action.

Takes No Action

The Central Committee's position on the upcoming vacancy was explained yesterday by James S. Getty, chairman.

Getty said the committee, "at this time," has no information regarding the effective date of Senator Kimble's resignation.

He said he had been informed that Senator Kimble's nomination as chairman of the Department of Employment Security had been confirmed by the Senate, but that until Kimble has actually resigned from the Senate, there is no vacancy to be filled, and the committee can take no action.

He added, "We will, of course, consider the various individuals who may make applications, but beyond that, any action on our part would be premature."

GOP To Decide

The final decision on Senator Kimble's successor will be made by the GOP Committee.

Getty said Section 13 of Article 3 of the Maryland Constitution provides that in case a vacancy occurs "the Governor shall appoint a person to fill such a vacancy from a person whose name shall be submitted to him in writing by the State Central Committee of the political party with which the Delegate or Senator, so vacating, has been affiliated..." and it shall be the duty of the Governor to make such appointment within 15 days after the submission."

Informed sources said confirmation of such appointments is virtually certain.

Of thing was sure yesterday—that the job will not go begging.

The situation was well expressed by one Republican who said, "The applicants are legion."

Senator Kimble expects to take several weeks off after the present session of the Assembly ends about April 4 to make a last trip over the territory covered by his job as B.O. safety supervisor.

He is expected to take over his new duties in Baltimore on June 1.

Surplus Food Registration Will Start

Registration for the April shipment of surplus foods to this county will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the local Red Cross offices, according to Mrs. Lee Witherup, executive secretary.

Throughout the county, the usual registration conducted each month will also be held. Lonaconing, Midland, Barton, Luke-Westernport, Mt. Savage and Eckhart will register also on March 1, 2 and 3, however, at Frostburg the registration will be held on Monday, February 28, Tuesday, March 1 and Wednesday, March 2.

In all Red Cross branches except Frostburg, it has been found that the first three days of the month, if they fall without breaking over a weekend, seem to suit more people. At Frostburg, the first three days of the week nearest registration dates seem to be more satisfactory.

The February distribution of surplus food commodities was completed here yesterday.

Seeks Liquor License

Carl F. Decker yesterday filed an application with the Allegany County Board of License Commissioners for a beer, wine and liquor license at 402 Virginia Avenue.

Kimble Is Confirmed For Employment Post

Will End 23-Year Term In Assembly

By LOU PANOS

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 25.—Sen. Robert B. Kimble, 51-year-old dean of the Maryland Senate, was dramatically named and immediately confirmed today as chairman of the Department of Employment Security.

Gov. McKeldin's nomination of the Republican from Allegany County had been expected for days but was delayed to give him extra time to decide whether he wanted the $10,000-a-year job.

He will finish out this legislative session and begin serving a six-year term in the spring, succeeding Daniel E. Klein, who was appointed in 1953 to fill a vacancy.

Kimble's acceptance marked the signing off of a 23-year tenure in the Legislature, exceeded only by that of Del. C. Ray Barnes, the Carroll County Republican whose career dates back to 1926.

Is Friend Of Labor

All but two years of Kimble's service have been in the Senate. He was elected to the House in a special 1932 election, surviving the Roosevelt Democratic landslide.

A native of Williamsport, Washington County, Kimble will head an agency operating 17 field offices to help unemployed find work, recruit labor for harvesting Maryland crops and administering unemployment compensation.

Unemployment has been one of the biggest problems in recent years in Allegany County, where Kimble had developed a reputation as a friend of labor.

All week there had been speculation in the State House about whether Kimble would leave his post as veteran minority leader for the state-wide office and about who might succeed him.

The most prominent report was that Del. Noel Speir Cook (R-Allegany) would shift to the Senate seat and young J. Glenn Beall, son of the U. S. Senator, would step into Cook's place in the House.

Wins Congratulations

Before reading clerk Charles Cohen finished announcing McKeldin's official nomination of Kimble, Sen. Hoff (R-Carroll) was on his feet to move immediate confirmation.

This touched off a flood of congratulations and farewell oratory from half a dozen senators. Upon adjournment of the session Kimble was besieged by hand-shaking colleagues in a demonstration which moved him to tears.

Hoff, whom Kimble had described as his "vice minority leader," said he was asking "with mixed emotion" that the nomination be confirmed on the spot instead of being referred to a standing committee for consideration, as were the hundreds of nominations McKeldin submitted to the Senate last Wednesday.

"We have no desire to lose our minority leader," said Hoff, "but we are proud to see him elevated to this position."

Praised By Governor

Majority Leader Turnbull (D-Balto County), recalling that only two days ago he reluctantly joined in the immediate confirmation of a minor appointee and had declared he would never do so again, said he was prepared to "eat my words" in this case and gladly go along.

Sen. Della (D-Balto 6th), majority leader throughout the last term, said he was glad to second Hoff's motion for a man who had served "with integrity and honesty."

A light note was added by Sen. Phoebeus (R-Somerset), who recalled that for many years he had sat beside Kimble in the Senate chamber, watching him repeatedly refer to the rule book to challenge Democratic opponents.

"And I only hope," said Phoebeus, "that whoever takes his place, will not wave that little red rule book in my face and pound on my desk instead of on his own like he did."

"He has been a competent and conscientious senator," said McKeldin after learning of the confirmation, "and I am quite sure he will carry these same qualities with him in his new post."

Meetings Set By Delegation

Two special meetings have been scheduled by the Allegany County Delegation next week, according to Charles M. See, chairman.

The Delegation will meet Tuesday at 7 p. m. with a committee from the Allegany County Bar Association, which is interested in legislation which will ensure two judges for Allegany County.

Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, will meet with the delegates Thursday at 7 p. m. to school problems.

Del. See said the legislators have asked Webster to include a report on visits made to Montgomery and Prince Georges counties to study programs for handicapped children.

Missing Sailor Is Located

James Forbes Jr., 24, who was reported missing Wednesday, was located Thursday, according to police.

City Police Detective James E. Van yesterday said the sailor, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va., had been reported missing by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Aldridge, Fort Ashby Road.

Bailey Bridge Status Still Is Uncertain

Lemmert Sends Letter To Beall

The much-discussed Bailey bridge across Wills Creek at Corriganville came up for another round yesterday at the meeting of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.
